Central County Exclusion From Transit District Studied

Studies aimed at excluding the central Contra Costa area from the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit district were authorized by the district's directors Tuesday night.

John R. Worthington, general manager, reported that more than 60 percent of the voters in Alameda County approved the bond issue, while only 39 percent favored the measured in central Contra Costa County.

"RESIDENTS in central Contra Costa County clearly showed they want out of the district," Worthington said. "For the moment, their continuation within the district could prove nothing but a burden."

He added:

"It is apparent from the close margin by which we missed the necessary two-thirds in Alameda County, however, that it is definitely the will of the people of this area to have an improved transit service operating as a publicly-owned district."

WORTHINGTON SAID another bond issue should be approached on an "entirely fresh basis, eliminating any feature which might have been found objectionable."

The board indicated that civic, business and industrial groups will be consulted on transit planning far more extensively than in the past. Directors adopted a report of the program planning committee that stated further study should be given to organizing a citizen advisory committee or other groups to help shape district plans.

"EVERY EFFORT should be made to bring into our planning the various citizens groups that have shown their intense interest."

Worthington told the board, "so that in the shaping of our program they will have a large part in forming a policy and program that would provide in their eyes the most benefit to our citizens and voters."

Rather than re-engage De Leuw, Cather Company to revise the transit program, the board assigned the job to the general manager and his staff.

Indications were a revised transit plan and new bond issue would be offered to the voters sometime within the next six months to a year.

DIRECTORS APPROVED the detailed report of Worthington, which contained a series of recommendations concerning the district's future transit program.

The board voted to begin revising the basic district transit plan, as prepared by De Leuw, Cather Company, and authorized a public opinion poll to determine why the $16,900,000 transit bond issue was defeated at the November 4 election.

Worthington pointed out to the directors that some legislative changes would be required in the transit district law to eliminate all of the central county area from the district.

MEANWHILE THE Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors indicated they would seek changes in the state law making it easier for areas to be withdrawn from the two county transit district.

The Board of Supervisors called for a meeting with State Senator George Miller, (D), Martinez; Assemblyman-elect Jerome Waldie, (D), Antioch, and S. C. "Brick" Masterson, (D), Richmond, who will be asked to sponsor the legislative measures necessary.

Price Slashing Continues In Contra Costa's Gas War

Contra Costa's "GAS WAR" took on new proportions this week as gas prices hit "rock bottom" levels.

In Orinda, the price plummeted to 18.9 cents per gallon for regular gasoline. Elsewhere the price ranged from 19.9 cents per gallon to 24.9 cents per gallon.

OPERATORS CLAIM that the price for regular gasoline should be 33 cents per gallon.

The war, which is entering its second month, has spread from Oakland to Pittsburg and Livermore to Richmond.

Contra Costa prices aren't the only ones down. Most of Alameda County, San Mateo County and San Francisco gas operators are involved in the price cutting spree.

REPRESENTATIVES of 2300 service station operators and major oil companies are deadlocked on what causes gasoline price wars.

John Touhey of the dealers group stated that the oil companies manipulate wholesale gasoline prices and sell recognized brands to independent dealers, who in turn sell it under different names and at lower prices.

The producers said, however, that they had to subsidize their dealers during gas wars, or dealers would go bankrupt.

DEALERS DON'T cause price wars, said G. C. Briggs of San Francisco, general sales manager of Standard Oil Company of California.

"Price wars are very costly to us and we have every reason not to start them."

The question of how much it costs to make a gallon of gasoline was answered by Robert H. Rath, special assistant to the marketing vice president of Union Oil Company.

"It costs some seven cents per gallon to buy crude oil and refine it," he said.

"WE CAN'T TELL you what it costs to make a gallon of gasoline," he added.

He said the price war had dropped the retail price of Union's regular gas to some 23.9 cents per gallon.

"If you deduct nine cents taxes, and 5.6 cents for the service, the stations guaranteed profit, Union came out with 9.3 cents," Rath said.

"THE REASON YOU can't compute the cost for gasoline is that the crude oil goes through so many processes and there are so many end products involved.

In most areas premium gasoline goes for four cents more a gallon than regular gasoline.

"If people can predict when gas wars should start and end, then their is dirty work at the crossroads," said Thomas J. McBride, assemblyman, who is conducting hearings on California's gas wars.

Young Still Leads Brown For Sheriff

Walter F. Young of Lafayette appears to be the next sheriff of Contra Costa County, according to returns of absentee ballots.

In an unofficial tally of absentee returns Sheriff Harry A. Brown leads Young—1230 to 1086. "But," Olsson said yesterday morning, county election chief James "this is not a large enough margin to change the November 4 unofficial count that had Young ahead by over 1000 votes."

BROWN HAS STATED that he will seek a recount of all the ballots cast in the November 4 election including the absentee ballot.

One error in the original count was found by election officials conducting the official ballot canvas for the county.

The mistake was made in a Kensington precinct in favor of Young. The election officers there credited votes for Brown to Young, Olsson said.

IN OTHER contests, Howard Jewel of Orinda trails Congressman John Baldwin 1640 to 853 in absentee ballots. Jewel has conceded the race.

Supervisor Ray S. Taylor leads Thomas Coll in the third supervisorial district, but no change is forseen in that election by elections officials. The absentee count is 444 to 366. Coll still leads in that race.

No absentee results were available for the C. Terence Ring-Betsy FitzGerald Rahn race for judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District nor the absentee count on Proposition B, the $16.9 million transit proposal.

Display Ad, News Deadlines Will Be Early

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday next Thursday, news and display advertising deadlines will be earlier than usual.

All people having news and publicity releases for The Sun are requested to have them in The Sun office by noon Monday. Any material which can be presented by Saturday will be appreciated.

Display advertising deadline Saturday at 5 p.m. Material can be brought into either of The Sun offices, 1000 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette, or 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

International Rotary Leader To Joint Meet

Sir Angus Mitchell of Australia, a past International Rotary Club president, will speak Tuesday at a joint meeting of Walnut Creek, Orinda, Lafayette, Pleasant Hill and Danville Rotarians.

The meeting will begin at 12 noon at the Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

Sir Angus Mitchell of Melbourne, Australia, has served as Rotary International president in 1948-49, director, district governor, committee chairman and member, and as an honorary trustee and chairman of the trustees of the Rotary Foundation.

He has been a member of the Rotary Club of Melbourne since 1927 and is a past president of that club.

Orinda Assn. Nominations Made

A slate of nine nominees for six posts on the Orinda Association board of directors was announced yesterday by Vic Kingston, chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee.

They are Kenneth Renwick and Lester Hink Jr. for the post now occupied by Fred Twining; E. F. Hochenbeamer, for the area represented by Heber Smith; Mrs. M. A. (Connie) Hall and William Kauffman, for the area now served by Dr. Ralph Hall; Philip Mittell for Art Flint's district; Vic Kingston and John Maga, for the area represented by Norm Cunningham, and David Young for Bill White's district.

Candidates were introduced at the Civic Affairs Commtitee meeting in Orinda School Monday evening, and presented short biographical sketches and outline their programs for the association.

Park Pool Driveway Plan Excludes Change in Lawn

The architectural committee of Orinda Park Pool will meet with Architect Robert Babcock within the next few days to perfect plans for a new pool driveway entrance, Jack Saunders, board of directors president, said yesterday.

Necessary earth-fill will be brought in from outside, he said, and no other work done on grounds until after the pool opens in May.

THREE BIDS will be asked for within two weeks on the entrance driveway, and the work completed as soon as possible.

Originally it was planned to enlarge the lawn area near the pool, using fill from a slope for the driveway. Saunders said this plan would have resulted in a "considerable savings," but some members objected to it.

A letter concerning the new driveway will be sent soon to all 400 "proprietary" members of the pool, according to Saunders. Proprietary members are those who have paid $400 for memberships. Dues are $75 a year.

LATER, the pool president said, a general plan for improvements to pool grounds will be worked out and presented to members.

"We have decided that this master plan should be worked out first and submitted to the membership for approval instead of doing the job piecemeal," Saunders commented. "But all we'll do before May is the driveway, an absolutely essential job."

The driveway into the pool is now on adjacent privately-owned property reportedly up for sale.

Scholarship Awarded to Pat Quinn

A $500 scholarship was the first place award acquired by Pat Quinn, Miramonte High School senior, in the science division at the recent Contra Costa Fair with her display, "Experiments in Heredity."

Miss Quinn's experiments studied the effects of radiation in determining mutations in fruit flies. This was a follow-up study of the experiment display she presented at the Bay Area Science Fair in 1957 for which she received a second place.

"Pat put in more than 500 hours on her project after she took second place in the 1957 Fair," stated Mr. Robert Campbell, Miramonte's science department chairman. "Her project certainly shows a great deal of careful, detailed work. She really deserved all the honors that she received."

As far as Pat is concerned, "I am very enthusiastic about my experiments. So far, I have not made any plans how I am going to use my scholarship, but you can be sure that I will use it."

Chamber Insists On Public Parking For New Building

Tentative plans for a medical building in Orinda Village were presented to Chamber of Commerce directors Tuesday in Casa Orinda.

The chamber voted to tell the Planning Commission it approves plans, which call for a zoning regulation variance, if Woolsey provides space for 50 standard sized permanent public parking stalls.

Ramsay Underwood said the chamber orginally told Woolsey it would approve the project because of its provision for public parking.

The Orinda Beautification Committee received a big boost for its plans with the announcement that East Bay MUD has offered pine trees to be planted by the county along Bryant Way.

Clarence Betz, chamber secretary, reported the donation.

Previously announced was the chamber's gift of 1,000 seedlings to be planted along the Village Bypass.

A Christmas tree lighting project was approved.

Mrs. Calvin Duncan of the Orinda Garden Club will supervise tree decoration.

Non-dues payers will have their names omitted from the chamber's directory, it was decided.

Fake Check Ring Cracked Here by Detective Skuce

The arrest of an Orinda woman suspected of heading an extensive fake check passing operation in Contra Costa County was reported Wednesday by the Contra Costa Sheriff's Department.

Detective Louis Skuce said that he arrested Mrs. Mary Bentley Bowbel, 31, Wednesday in Lafayette. Skuce has been working on the case for about a month.

SKUCE SAID that Mrs. Bowbel had been one of three suspected of passing checks which victimized groceries in Pleasant Hill, Concord, Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda to the tune of $500 to $600 over weekends.

An all points bulletin has been issued by the Contra Costa Sheriff's office, according to Inspector Norman Wilson, for her brother, Kenneth Bentley, 33, and Don Warren, 31, who lived with her, but who have "temporarily eluded the law enforcement network."

THE INSPECTOR said that the trio had formerly lived in Oregon.

Mrs. Bowbel was placed in the county jail and charged with passing fictitious checks.

Skuce said that she admitted her participation in the operation.

Wonder Drugs Fail Congested Drivers

Wonder drugs were of no avail this week to motorists suffering from "congestion."

The congestion came in the form of traffic jams along Mt. Diablo Boulevard caused by construction crews widening the "missing link" of the Diablo Freeway from El Nido to the Orinda Interchange.

Jam-ups were common every morning and afternoon, according to "congested commuters."

No immediate relief of the congestion is expected by contractors on the multi-million dollar expansion project.

"The only good thing about the tie-ups," one commuter said, "is that they will all be over soon forever along the Diablo Freeway.

How Not to Win Friends: Just Ignore the People

AN EDITORIAL

East Bay MUD and Associated Investment Co. could learn a lesson in public relations from Jack Marchant, a contractor-developer.

He plans a subdivision involving a zoning change of vital interest to residents of Reliez Valley. (See story in today's Sun).

Before applying for the zoning variance, he has gathered all available information concerning the way in which his project may affect adjacent lower areas which have been flooded each winter.

He has presented this information at a meeting of the Reliez Valley Improvement Association.

We don't know whether it will approve of his project or not. But we do know that he's doing a good job of public relations.

"Public relations," of course, is just a fancy phrase for getting along with people.

EBMUD FUMBLED near its own goal line in its original bullheaded determination to put a pipeline down Mt. Diablo Boulevard without letting Lafayette residents know in advance what it planned to do and exactly why it had to be done that way.

And EBMUD's unheralded, almost secretive attempt to get a permit from supervisors to rip up Mt. Diablo Boulevard was as obviously "engineered."

Its public relations men must have been out for a cup of coffee.

Fortunately, there was an accidental leak in the information pipeline. Therefore the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce was represented when EBMUD asked for the permit.

SUPERVISORS DELAYED the grant until after EBMUD had met with chamber representatives and those from other utilities to agree on plans that would keep traffic snafus at a minimum.

When the meeting was held, EBMUD was represented by the engineers. There wasn't a public relations man in sight. And the engineers were uncompromising as a slide-rule.

By this time, Lafayette was beginning to ask questions. Why did Mt. Diablo Boulevard have to be used? Was another route possible? If so, what would be the difference in cost to the utility?

There weren't any attempts at answers until local bewilderment grew into indignation which was reflected in news stories in The Sun.

BELATEDLY, TWO DIRECTORS of EBMUD then up for reelection met with the chamber. They were polite and cooperative.

They didn't have the answers, they admitted.

But they would have their engineers get them.

We insist that these answers should have been ready, and presented to Lafayette long before the permit was requested two months ago.

WE FIND IT HARD to forget that EBMUD has a 100-foot right-of-way along the ridge just south of the freeway. The right-of-way carries a 9-foot pipe. The pipe EBMUD proposes to bury in the center of Mt. Diablo Boulevard would be 8½ feet in diameter.

There should be room and to spare for the new pipeline in the old right-of-way, making boulevard excavation unnecessary.

But when this fact was mentioned, utility directors and an engineer shook their heads firmly and looked embarrassed—as they should have been.

An "engineering error" had been made, they said. They admitted that—for what reason apparently no one knows——their engineers had the present 9-foot pipe laid so that it zig-zags from side to side, using all the space in a 100-foot right-of-way!

MUD'S REPRESENTATIVES evaded responsibility for this blunder by declaring that the crazily meandering pipeline was laid before their administration.

Nevertheless, the engineers were wrong—and this admission was made by an organization which asked Lafayette to accept unquestioningly the edict of engineers that Mt. Diablo Boulevard is the only route the pipeline can take!

We wonder if the engineers may not be wrong again.

We wonder, too, whether MUD's engineers wouldn't find another way if their bosses told them to, and not take the obviously ready-graded path through the heart of our community.

THE SAME INEPTITUDE in human understanding was shown by Associated Investment Co. in its dealings with Orinda.

First, without a word of warning or explanation, the Oakland firm cut down the old pine trees.

It not only slashed out the trees on its own property, but blundered onto adjacent land of Pine Grove School, and felled trees there.

Then, again without a word to anyone in Orinda, Associated Investment filed an application with the Planning Commission for a zoning change that would permit the erection of an apartment house on the Pine Grove property.

THE ORINDA ASSOCIATION indicated it would object to rezoning. This was hardly a surprise to anyone who had ever passed the time of day with anyone in Orinda.

After the filing, a month elapsed because of failure of Associated Investment to appear at the time set for the hearing.

Courteously, the Orinda Association did not protest a postponement.

But, in the face of open opposition from the community, if any representative of the firm even stopped while driving through Orinda, no director of the Orinda Association knows about it.

The kind of apartment building planned—its size, its design, the amount of rent to be charged, came as a complete surprise to the association's representative at the hearing.

ASSOCIATED INVESTMENT was willing to spend $6,000,000 to build a veritable palace of an apartment house—with rentals ranging from $300 to $500 a month—but not one minute for public relations.

"If the area were to be rezoned, this is the type of development that might interest Orinda people," the Orinda Association's representative at the hearing said cautiously.

Although he added, "I doubt that Orinda residents would want the density of population that would be brought in by 200 units on 10 acres," the owner of the Pine Grove had never given Orinda people a chance to study their feelings on the question.

So there you have it—two ways of dealing with a community—the until recently high-handed way of EBMUD and Associated Investment, and the way of Jack Marchant.

Keynote Speaker Slaps Hard at 'Covert Censors'

More than 400 persons crowded Orinda's spacious new library last Friday night for dedication ceremonies.

To Perc S. Brown, chairman of the building fund committee, went the honor of snipping the bright yellow ribbon to mark the happy culmination of a four-year fund-raising job.

The library and the community spirit which created it were praised by Dr. James D. Hart, University of California vice chancellor, keynote speaker.

HART OUTLINED the history of public libraries in the United States and England.

He stressed the importance of a library's role in universal distribution of ideas ,however, controversial, and hit hard at all kinds of censorship.

"Censorship in the sense of prohibition of texts considered to be immoral, pernicious, or subversive is as old as printing or book collecting in this country," he declared.

"This kind of censorship is bad, but it is open. In our age of anxiety there is also much covert censorship which attacks intellectual freedom rather than specific books alone.

"OF COURSE this is not the creation of our time, but our time is particularly prone to consider independent thought somewhat suspect.

"The values of the group are likely to be esteemed in direct proportion to the number or the intensity of those who espouse them.

"As a concomitant, relatively few people want books of independent ideas. . . .

". . . Public relations is sometimes but a polite word in whose name or spirit there is masked an inhibition of ideas or the cautious avoidance of ideas that are called controversial, and of course any idea is by nature controversial.

"IT IS THIS CLIMATE, which is bad for the free circulation of ideas, what we have to worry about is not the heat but the humility."

Festivities began with a colorful flag-raising ceremony in which Boy and Girl Scouts and snappily-uniformed firemen took part.

As the American flag flutttered upward, billowed by a sudden gust, Scout Peter Boyle played the trumpet.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Chauncey Blossom of the Orinda Community Church.

The crowd filled the 50 folding seats installed in front of the rostrum. Hundreds more stood, backed up to the front door and picture windows, overflowing into the patio, where there was a display of art by the Orinda Art Center.

They were welcomed by William Fleager, dedication committee chairman, whose introduction of Brown was applauded when he was described as "the man without whom this library could not have been built."

Brown introduced his long-time friend, Dr. Hart.

Following Hart's address, Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, county librarian, presented honorary membership cards to those "who worked so hard for all the 4½ years we've worked to get this library."

Card No. 1 went to Brown, whom she described as "a genius as an organizer."

Previously, he had accepted a California state flag presented by Mrs. Virginia Stanford, representing Daughters of the Golden West, and an American flag from Mrs. William C. Braley of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Board Approves Snow Court Job

Supervisor M. F. Nielsen announced today that the Board of Supervisors has approved the plans and specifications for the reconstruction of Snow Court in Orinda.

Bids for the work will be received on December 9.

The project is 600 feet long and will replace a badly worn narrow pavement with a two-lane street with concrete ditches on each side to prevent erosion. Estimated cost of construction is $10,100.

Exchange Students Express Thanks

Mrs. Sigurd Groennings, chairman of Orinda American Field Service Committee, has received letters from several recent exchange students.

"They gave a glimpse of the force the exchange program can have in the field of international friendship and understanding," she said, "especially you realize these letters represent only three of the hundreds of youth, including our own, who go each year to live with a family in a country foreign to them."

From Denmark came a letter from former exchange student Elin Rasmussen, who attended Acalanes in 1956-57 and stayed at the Carl Kalbfleisch home in Orinda.

AFTER WARM WORDS of appreciation to all who helped make her stay possible and such a "rich" experience" she says:

"This summer was very busy and happy. I had two American summer students for five weeks. These two AFS girls were just lovely and together with a girl from Yugoslavia, who stayed here for two months we had a terrific time.

"I also have met a lot of AFS students touring Europe and it is more fun to talk about our memories. Then I am very active in the SYN AFS community. All meetings are held in my home and I have been in charge of several things.

"In August came the highlight of the year. A dinner dance was given at a castle on the island in the honor of Her Royal Highness the Crown Princess. I was invited and there were 40 young people from the nobility present. (I was the only one without a known name.) The King and Queen and their two youngest daughters were there too, and I was introduced to all of them.

"IT WAS A BRILLIANT night and I felt very honored to be there. I had on my red American formal and it took many compliments.

"This fall I spent my vacation in Dusseldorf. I came back eight days ago after several wonderful days at Fritz' home. Smed Ambler came up from Stuttgart and we had more fun talking about "old days" back at school there—Fritz, Smed and I."

"Elin mentions wearing her 'red American formal'," Mrs. Groennings commented. "This was made by Mrs. Gladys Martineau of Walnut Creek, who has generously made and given formals to several of the exchange student girls in this area. The Fritz Borst she mentions was also an exchange student at Acalanes, living with the Lincoln family in Lafayette.

"Smed Ambler, son of the Louis Amblers, was an exchange student to Europe under AFS and now is in Germany on a Stanford University program."

FROM EBERHARD UMBACH in Germany who stayed with the Robert Browns and attended Miramonte, came the following note, which says in part:

"Though I am speaking German again (I can tell you it was hard at first) and have been riding to school on a bicycle for the last two months I just can't forget Orinda.

"The other day I had to write a theme in school about the gains of my year in America; at first I was so swamped with material that I didn't know where to begin, but then I wrote about the time when I was changed completely.

"Of course I can't rewrite the whole theme for you but the main idea was: I just can't hear anybody say unfriendly words about another country, may it be the United States or another nation.

"Then I have to at least try to convince the person that his views are one-sided and narrow-minded. For during my stay in America I realized that it is impossible to criticize another people about their differences from our way of life and our inherited customs."

Agnetta Persson, who lived with the Charles Ericksons and attended Miramonte, wrote from Sweden that each day she looks at the American flag in her home and thinks of America and Orinda.

She said, "I will always remember my year in America as one of the happiest of my life. Until one year ago, America seemed so unreal and very far away like in another world and now there has become no distance. My family in Orinda adopted me in a quite wonderful way and it is with tremendous richness and thankfulness I now feel that I will always have two families."

She wrote that she had a "quite wonderful year at Miramonte and there are many ideas which I have brought back to Sweden." She hopes to use some of them in her school.

"Members of any Orinda family who would like to enrich their own lives and help an exchange student at the same time may make application for a foreign student to live with them for the next school year under the American Field Service program," Mrs. Groennings said. "Preliminary application blanks are available at the Miramonte High School office or may be obtained from Mrs. Tom Mika, CLifford 4-8595."

Eagle Scout Test Passed

Charles G. Pfeiffer of Explorer Post 300 will receive the rank of Eagle Scout the evening of December 2. The Court of Honor will be held at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m.

Charles, 16, junior crew leader of the post, is a Miramonte High School sophomore.

He has been an active member of the post since transferring from Boy Scout Troop 125 in Houston, Tex. He was a charter member of Troop 125.

Pack 211 to See Expert Bowmen

Cub Pack 211 of Orinda will hold its monthly meeting Friday night in the Sleepy Hollow all-purpose room.

All 8 and 9 year old boys in the area have been invited to attend.

There will be a demonstration by the Redwood Bowman arching team. This is an exhibition team headed by Captain Ernest Bartolomie of Oakland.

Plans are being made for the Cubs to earn money to buy gifts to be presented to the Intertribal Friendship House of Oakland for children of American Indians at Christmas.

Health Council Plans Lectures

The Health Council and the Coordinating Council representing the five Orinda schools are sponsoring a series of lectures.

The first meeting will be a panel discussion. Community standards and social pressures as they affect children will be the topic for a sociologist, a psychiatrist, a physician and an educator.

A question and answer period will follow the meeting, at a date to be set in January.

Supervisor Nielsen Answers Sun Editorial Comments

Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen of the second district responded to an editorial which appeared in the November 14 edition of The Sun Wednesday.

Nielsen said:

"In response to your editorial I wish to correct some of the statements made in regard to the General Plan Program.

"The Orinda Plan has not been adopted, however, the planning department staff has been working with the planning committee of the association in preparing material for them to confer with local residents. A plan was prepared in 1955 and not adopted due to the P.I.E. controversy.

"The Moraga General Plan was adopted by the planning commission on April 7, 1955. Since that date a revised plan was adopted in June of 1958 bringing the plan up to date on residential densities and the location of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway.

"These plans were approved only after extensive public hearings held by the commission. Your papers covered each of the stories.

"General plans adopted by the commission include the area surrounding Lafayette and Moraga, and all of the San Ramon Valley area from Walnut Creek south to the county line.

"The area to the northeast of Lafayette is covered by the Pleasant Hill General Plan adopted by the commission.

"In addition to these plans mentioned the commission and the board have adopted the following elements of the overall plan for the county:

"1 The General Highway Plan.

"2. Portions of the General Sewerage Plan.

"3. The General Plan for Refuse Disposal.

"4. A thoroughfare plan for the county is being prepared by the Tudor Engineering Company as consultant," Nielsen concluded.

New Cubs Join Orinda Pack 212

Orinda Pack 212 received new Cubs last Friday evening at the Orinda Community Church.

A gold arrow on his wolf badge was awarded Rickey Hackler. One year service stars were given Mike Winfree, Doug Nelson, Clinto Hawkins, Bucky and Ricky Jensen.

Mrs. Charles Merrell's Den 1 received its second year service stars and also presented a comedy skit featuring several magic acts.

Sadie Hawkins Dance Planned

Tonight Miramonte high school will hold its annual Sadie Hawkin's Day and Dance sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association.

The students will dress in clothes resembling those of the characters in "Lil Abner" at school and at the dance that night.

During the noon hour on Friday there will be a race in which the girls chase the boys. Any boy caught by a girl will be her date for the dance that night.

A prize will be given for the best Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae costume at the dance at which the school dance band will play. The dance will last from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. in the school gym. Many surprise contests are planned for the dance.

Orindan Helps 'Stocking Sale'

Mrs. Peyton Jacob Jr. of Orinda is one of the Herrick Guild "Arch of Diamonds" committee members planning the "Christmas Stocking Sale" to be held December 5 at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Sale hours will be 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Small gifts, intended for both children and adults, will be offered.

Winter Is Icumen In . . . It's Chilly!

The weatherman took off his fur mittens long enough to stuff another log on the fireplace, commenting, "It sure is cold in this here neck of the woods."

He glanced at the icy panes in the picture window overlooking the frosty Orinda hillside, cuddled up a little closer to the fire, and came out with these high and low temperatures for the week:

Prizes Won By Local Riflemen

Annual awards were presented marksmen of the Lafayette Junior Rifle Club Wednesday night at the Lafayette Fire Departhent Main Station.

Presentations were made by Bill Collins, volunteer fireman and member of the department's rifle club committee.

Trophy for top score at recent match held at Bay Point Rod and Gun Club, Port Chicago, went to Harvey Kogut, a first-time winner.

Permanent possession will go to the member who wins it for two consecutive years, said Newell Mayfield, club organizer and coach.

In second, third and fourth places, respectively, and prizes won: Bill Peregoy, compass; Lonnie Osgood, hunting knife, and Jimmie Maxey, can of gun oil.

Club Bridge Winners Listed

With a score of 61, Mrs. R. Cross and Helen Bowe won the November 12 session of duplicate bridge at Orinda Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Anderson were second with 60; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boise third with 57.

No more duplicate bridge sessions will be held until after January 1.

Mothers Hear Girls Ensemble

Miramonte High School's Girls' Ensemble, the first singing group of its kind for the Orinda high school, gave its first performance recently for the Moraga Mothers' Club annual potluck dinner at the Moraga Elementary School.

The Ensemble is made up of 12 girls under the direction of Mr. Gordon Mallory, music instructor. Those who sang were Carol Lowen, Donnette Rutherford, Jean Hilmer, Suzy Ewbank, sopranos; Rosemary Niosi, Leslie Compton, Barbara Stern, Lyn Davis, second sopranos; and Anita Osborn, Judy Smith, Linda Hart, Emma Reinhart, altos.

The singing group repertoire is ready for any future invitation, according to Mallory.

Ritchie Wards In Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie Ward of Orinda are currently in Washington, D. C., where he is attending an International Conference on Scientific Studies.

As manager of the technical information services department of the Shell Development plant in Emeryville, Ward is convening with international authorities on the subject of Efficiency and Use of Science.

One of the foremost philosophers of the world attending is Yehoshua Bar-hillel of Israel, head of the humanities department of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Conference members include Bay Areans Ozzie Milmore and Lionel J. B. Mote of San Francisco.

To Orindans, with Orchids and a Bow:

AN EDITORIAL

Hats off, a deep bow, and a nosegay of orchids to Orinda!

Four years of hard work by public-spirited men and women, four years of drives for funds, of rummage sales and benefit performances, have culminated in a beautifully functional library.

As Dr. James D. Hart described it in his dedicatory address:

"This is truly a magnificent small community library, handsome in its architecture and its facilities. The thoughtful planning evident in the creation of such a fine setting and the civic spirit that brought this building into being have created a library finer than most communities of this size, or indeed of much larger size, are fortunate enough to possess."

VISITING IT, one wonders how so much could be purchased for $115,000. Buildings costing much more don't approach it in architectural beauty.

That's an overworked word, but it fits. The dictionary defines beauty as "That quality or aggregate of qualities in a thing which gives pleasure to the senses or pleasurably exalts the mind or spirit . . ."

Orinda's new library mutely belies these antique words of President James A. Garfield, speaking to Williams College alumni in 1871:

"I AM NOT WILLING that this discussion should close without mention of the value of a true teacher. Give me a log hut with only a simple bench, Mark Hopkins on one end and I on the other, and you may have all the buildings, apparatus and library, without him."

Garfield was, of course, extravagantly praising his mentor, Mark Hopkins. But the other side of the coin carries the argument that fine public buildings for free public education and for libraries aren't really necessary.

Mr. Garfield's fine-sounding words are misleading.

For while it's important that there's ample space for books in Orinda's new library, even more important to us is the fact that it's attractive.

We know that many hundreds more are going to be reading and researching than ever visited the old library, just because the new one is such a pleasant place to be.

AND SO THE ORINDANS who built it have made a definite contribution to the strength of our democracy.

For free public education and free public libraries—libraries that put books into the hands of as many people as possible—are the foundation of our system of government, the nation's freedom, and our own personal liberty.

Pride was evident on the faces of every Orindan attending the dedication ceremony. They have a right to be proud. We think their accomplishments will help knit Orinda into an integrated community with even stronger bonds than before.

Quite humbly and honestly, we doff our hat to Orinda.

Mike Elbo Joins Naval Reserve

Michael J. Elbo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Elbo, 5 Kenmore Court, Orinda, has been sworn into the naval air reserve at Oakland Naval Air Station.

A senior at Miramonte High School, Michael will be an airman recruit with patrol squadron VP-876.

As a "Weekend Warrior" he will spend one weekend each month on drills at NAS Oakland and two weeks each year on active duty.

His squadron flies the P2V Neptune patrol plane on barrier patrols and anti-submarine warfare at sea.

Gillivan Plays In Dance Band

James G. Gillivan, Orinda, has been selected guitar player for the Collegians, student dance band on the campus of California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo.

Gillivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gillivan, 160 Camino Don Miguel, Orinda, is a freshman electronics major.

The guitar player, one of two freshmen to successfully compete for membership in the Collegians, is an active member of the Institute of Radio Engineers and the Newman Club.

A graduate of Acalanes High School, Gillivan was a member of the Orindians dance band and former record editor on the Acalanes "Blueprint."

A TOTAL OF 62 groups have required the services of over 560 volunteers during the past eight months. The locating of these volunteers is the function of the Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa. Observing a unique community service, Directory of Organizations, are Mesdames Frank Lord, William Channell and George Planz.

Crusade Drive Extended Until 'Job Completed'

In an effort to raise maximum funds, the Contra Costa United Crusade, with the five county United Bay Area Crusade, has extended its 1958 annual drive until the "job is completed."

Plans were discussed at a campaign cabinet meeting of leaders Tuesday at the Nut Bowl in Pleasant Hill. Jack Mullen is county campaign chairman.

"The distraction of a heated election campaign set us back a few weeks so that we have no alternative but to extend our annual fund-raising drive until the job is completed," Mullen stated.

"Returns to date are reassuring with a few very bright spots showing 100 per cent participation in some industry, some schools and some public employees.

"In most cases where the job of soliciting was promptly done, the wide participation and larger contributions totaling a fair share of giving was very much in evidence."

However, the extended campaign is to make it possible that volunteer solicitors continue their important work until they reach every donor, he added.

To date a total of $355,308 was collected, or 70.6 per cent of this years goal of $502,788.

Leaders include Bruce Copeland and Douglas Cowan, Diablo Valley chairman and co-chairman; J. O. Evans and Mrs. Frank Malley, Lafayette chairman and co-chairman.

William Smikahl and H. H. Miller Jr., Walnut Creek chairman and co-chairman; John Lubbers and E. S. Winslow, Pleasant Hill chairman and co-chairman; Robert Corrington, Tom Clark and L. Ferraro, Danville-Alamo-San Ramon, chairman and co-chairmen, and Duncan Knudsen of Lafayette, president of Contra Costa United Crusade.

Choral Group Has Luncheon

Diablo Valley Choral held a luncheon and business meeting November 12 at the home of Mrs. E. J. Martin, 1456 Rudgear Road, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Martin was assisted by Mesdames E. C. Shokal, Don DuBoise, Miles Clark and G. C. Harris.

The Choral will hold a Christmas party December 12 at the Alamo Women's Club. Mrs. B. E. McNay is the party chairman. She will appoint committee chairmen soon.

The group will present a Christmas program for the Lafayette Women's Club on December 2.

The same program will be repeated for the patients at Livermore Hospital, December 15.

Clothing Drive Conducted by AFS Committee

"How thankful can you be" is theme theme for a drive for clothing sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee.

The drive will start tomorrow and continue to December 7.

"Clothing will be sought for Japanese made homeless by the typhoon, and the thousands who make their way across the border into west Germany. These people are cold and they are homeless. They are without hope in their misery except for our help," said Russell Jorgensen of the American Friends Service Coommittee, which has supplied clothing for almost 40 years.

Good strong warm clothing for men and children (especially boy's) and women's outer clothing and bedding are needed.

Residents may bring clothing to any one of the depots listed below during the drive.

Walnut Creek, Las Palmas Hotel, Main Street; Danville, Danville Fire Station; Lafayette, The Hut, La Fiesta Square Shopping Center; Orinda, The Buehler Building, 17 Orinda Way.

Watch for Christmas Seal Containers---And Give!

"Christmas Seals for everyone", will be the slogan of District 17 Jaycees this year as they assume the responsibility for placing and collecting Christmas Seal self-selling containers in all hotels, motels, and postoffices in the county.

Ted Merrill, state vice-president representing District 17, has appointed Dr. Leon Schneider of Walnut Creek as the area chairman of this project.

Dr. Schneider stated, "We want to make it possible for everyone to buy Christmas Seals whether or not they have a permanent mailing address. For many of us, Christmas is not complete without Tuberculosis Christmas Seals on all packages and letters."

The 100 self-sellers have been prepared for distribution by Campfire Girls from Group 4 and 5, and the Okecumachick and Ni-Sa-Tin groups, under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Copeland of Lafayette, Mrs. W. C. Dietrich and Mrs. Marge Quinn of Pleasant Hill, and Mrs. Fitzpatrick of Lafayette.

The Contra Costa Tuberculosis Association, whose sole means of support is their annual sale of Christmas Seals, this year are making every effort to increase their sale due to the fact that there will be a greater need for funds for medical research.

The association has pledged a generous percentage to join with other state associations in insuring continued support of research projects now being carried on in medical schools in this state, Schneider said.

Ingalls Elected State Realtors' Regional VP

Al Ingalls, Walnut Creek realtor, was elected regional vice president of the California Real Estate Association, last week at the state convention in San Francisco.

Ingalls is president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board for 1958. He will assume the regional office next year.

He will be installed in San Jose in January.

ABOUT 30 realtors of the central county attended the state convention, which lasted more than a week.

Also, Wayne Bailey, Board executive vice president, spoke at a meeting of the Women's Council of the National Association. The National Association meeting was also held in San Francisco, last week.

Ingalls was the local boards voting delegate at the national convention. About 20 realtors from this area attended the national session.

They include the following:

RAY HENRY, Bill Hayward and Mrs. Hayward, Bert Daniels, Harlan Geldermann, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson, Martin Edwards, Harry Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Gilbert, Phil Dirks, Carl Bryant, Ken Richardson, Charles Bailey, Marvin Roth, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter, Jack Wolverton.

Jack Weightman, King Parker Jr., Bill Riggs, Betty McGinley, Clarence Gribbon.

Fred Kracke of the General contractors Association, M. G. Hoskins, Mrs. Ruberta Pearce.

Other realtors and salesmen also attended.

Outstanding Player Awards To Miramonte Stars

The Miramonte Boosters Club, comprised of high school fathers, honored football players and coaches of the high school at a dinner Saturday.

James Lewis, principal, and Robert Rowe, dean of boys, were guest speakers. Head coach Robert Brooks introduced the senior varsity players and presented to each a football trophy from the club.

A special feature of the evening was the announcement of the outstanding players on the varsity team as voted by their teammates.

Bruce Hilger was named most valuable back, Milt Blake most valuable lineman, Bicky Clifford most courageous player.

Their names will be engraved on a plaque to be displayed on the school's trophy wall. Each year the names of three honored players will be added to the plaque. Lewis received the plaque for the school from the Boosters Club.

Don Phillips, acting head of the P.E. Department and varsity line coach, introduced new coaches. Bob Callan, varsity basketball coach, presented an evaluation of the athletic department and expectations for the basketball season.

It is the intent of the Boosters Club to make the banquet an annual event.

All Miramonte High School fathers are invited to join the club and thus support the athletic program and coming sports events.

UC Forty-Eighters

The class of '48 of the University of California will hold its tenth reunion tonight in the California Room of the Palace Hotel. The event will be a cocktail party from 7-10 with the University Band and Glee Club visiting at that time. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Ski Club Display Now Underway

An equipment display will be featured at Mt. Diablo Ski Club's meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at 2080 Willow Pass Road.

The display will emphasize developments that assure safety, but do not impair the thrills of skiing, Club President Ed Kamlan reports.

Boero's Sport Shop of Walnut Creek is cooperating with the club in presenting the display.

Persons interested in skiing are invited.

Acalanes Ekes Out Win, Edges San Ramon, 14-13

A conversion point proved to be the difference last Friday night as the Acalanes Dons, playing at home, scored a pair of touchdowns and added a pair of conversion points to edge the San Ramon eleven 14-13.

The Dons two touchdowns came in the first half while the visitors tallied one in the second quarter and another in the third period.

Acalanes put on a 60-yard drive in the opening quarter, taking nine plays to cover the distance.

MIKE KRITSCHER, playing at right half, swept right end on a pitchout from quarterback Don Nelson for the final three yards.

Halfback Jim Walker got the extra point as he cracked over the middle on a cross buck.

The San Ramon Wolves evened the count in the second period of play when they put on a 40-yard, 9-play march of their own with quarterback Mike Kyle sweeping right end on an option play for the big six. Kyle then kicked the conversion point.

THE DONS WENT ahead to stay later in the quarter when they covered 40 yards in six plays to score.

Kritscher hit the end zone on a quick pass from 2 yards out, and then Nelson, running the option, got the big extra point.

The games only other scoring came in the third quarter when they took the ball on the Dons 35 and drove to the 6 in four plays. Rick Strahan burst off tackle for the score, but Kyle's conversion kick was wide, going to the left, and it marked the difference in the final tally.

The Danville crew held a 240-210 edge in the total yardage.

The win gave Acalanes third place in the final standings, with Las Lomas first, Piedmont second, San Ramon fourth and Miramonte in the cellar.

Rams Romp Over Pacs: Win 30-14

The Pleasant Hill Rams grid machine was in high gear last Friday night as they rolled to an impressive 30-14 win over the hapless Pacifica Spartans under the lights of Mt. Diablo High.

The win gave the Rams their best season yet as they tied with Pittsburg for the runnerup spot behind champion Diablo in the final standings with a two-win, one-loss one-tie record.

It was touch and go in the first quarter—in fact, the first points went on the scoreboard in the second quarter after the Rams had a pair of touchdowns nullified by penalties earlier in the game.

A FOURTH DOWN kick by the Spartans from their own 16 went astray as it wound up in the end zone for a safety when Dave Parker of Pacifica recovered the ball and was tackled in the end zone making it 2-0.

The Spartans kicked off from their own 20 and were soon in hot water as the Rams went 56 yards in 10 plays to score with quarterback Maples doing it on a one yard sneak.

Full back Roger Foulk hit right tackle for the extra point.

The Rams really iced the ball game in the big third quarter as they racked up a big 21 points in less than eight minutes.

Foulk started it when on the first play from scrimmage in the second half he hit off tackle for 68 yards to score and added the extra point on a tackle cross buck.

SECONDS LATER quarterback Jim Maples intercepted a Pacific pass and returned 24 yards to score. Foulk ran right end for point number 23.

Pacifica drove deep to Ram territory only to stall on the 31. Foulk hit the line for 7 and then halfback Roger Leonard took over by going over tackle—this time the left one, and broke clear for a 62-yard touchdown run.

Foulk cracked right guard for the conversion to bring the count to 30-0.

FROM HERE ON in reserves took over for the most part and Pacifica's Ivan Perkins took advantage of it to score a pair of touchdowns in the final quarter—one on a 28-yard run and another on a 4-yard crack over left tackle.

Perkins added the extra points on cracks at the line.

Statistics gave the Rams a 13-8 margin in first downs and 266 on the ground along with 35 on passes.

The Spartans had 87 yards rushing and 29 passing.

EndowmentFund

An endowment totaling $20,365 was received this week by St. Mary's College, it was announced by Brother S. Albert, FSC, college president.

Realtors are Hosts to Nat'l Ass'n Speaker

Emerson Smith, field executive of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, will spend today in Walnut Creek consulting with local realtors and other business leaders, Al Ingalls, president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, announced yesterday.

Smith came from the headquarters office of the association in Chicago.

During his visit, Smith will meet with officers of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board and speak at a meeting of the board in the new auditorium of the real estate board building, 1343 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Prior to his service with the Realtor's association, Smith was an active realtor in Kingsport, Tennessee.

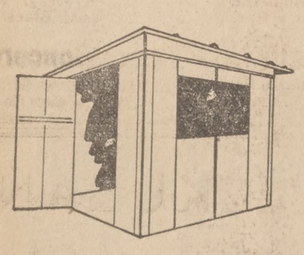

In 1956 he served as president of his local board and as a vice president of the Tennessee Association of Realtors.

New Savings Stamps Offered At Post Office

Walnut Creek Postmaster L. G. Bornholtz today announced the new 25 cent United States Savings Stamp will go on sale in the Walnut Creek Post Office this week.

It will be available in gift books of $2.50 and $5 value, in addition to the customary sheet form.

The new red, white and blue issue marks the first time that Savings Stamps have been printed in more than one color, according to the Postmaster.

It will continue to feature the Minute Man, as on the old green stamp, but the American flag has been added to the background.

"The Gift Books will be especially appropriate as the Christmas season approaches," Bornholtz pointed out.

"The $2.50 book contains ten 25 cents Savings Stamps, the $5 book 20 stamps, and there is no extra charge for the book itself," he added.

At present, only the 25 cent denomination will appear in the patriotic three-color theme.

However, all other Savings Stamps will continue to be sold: the 10 cent stamp in red, the 50 cent in blue, the $1 in grey, and the $5 in brown.

Hilger Sparks Matadors; Powerful Piedmont Wins

The Miramonte Matadors wound up a winless season last Friday night when the Piedmont Highlanders chalked up a one-sided 58-13 win but they did have the satisfaction of scoring 13 points on two touchdowns and a conversion — their first points of the season.

The Matadors' touchdown came in the final quarter when Bruce Hilger got off a 77 yard kickoff return for a touchdown and later in the period got off another 63-yard gallop to set up the next one which came when Gordon Hightower swept right end for the final 10 to the goal line. Bob Geisler kicked this one for the extra point.

The Highlanders took early command in the game as they registered 19 points in the opening quarter, 7 in the second, and went on to score two touchdowns in the third period and three in the final canto, plus a pair of conversion points.

The first three touchdowns come when Kevin Hogan tallied a pair on a 30-yard run and an 18-yard pass play while fullback Bobby Jones took a pass from quarterback Steve Wilcox with the play covering 44 yards.

Wilcox was back in the act in the second quarter as he tossed an aerial to Ned Wood—the scoring play covering 20 yards.

Wilcox toted the ball for a 44-yard scoring run on his own in the third quarter and Gary O'Hara tallied twice on runs in the third quarter.

Piedmont racked up three final touchdowns in the last period when Hogan took a kickoff for 82 yards, Paul Parkinson fell on a blocked punt in the end zone, and John Fefer brought another punt back 64 yards.

Hogan accounted for two conversion points kicking one and taking a pass for the other. Chip Miles scored an extra point on a run while George Conn did likewise on a smash up the middle.

Statistics gave the Piedmont eleven a wide edge—9-5 on first downs, 251 yards to 126 rushing and a 94-17 edge in the aerial department.

TB Association Adds Two Directors

Mrs. Fred Caulfield of Pleasant Hill and Robert Covert of Walnut Creek have been appointed to directorships of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association.

The action took place at a board meeting in Pittsburg November 13.

Other action taken at the meeting included acceptance of plans presented by the Patient Services Committee to construct a patio area for use of the tuberculosis patients near Ward I of the County Hospital in Martinez.

The Book House

"OPEN THE DOOR, see all the people" . . . The line of that old Handsies game reminds us of the new library dedicated last Friday & officially open on Monday . . . The 1st day, over 1000 books were taken out.

At the Friday nite festivities, one couple walked in the door, looked at the handsome spacious room & all the Happy Chatty People (libraries usually being so quiet!) and exclaimed "Gosh, looks like a party at the Country Club!" Another man waltzed up to his wife, bowed seriously, saying "Darling, may I have the next dance?" And it WAS a temptation—the highly-polished floor gleamed like a vast stage due to the absence of furniture. Enough to turn Arthur Murray green!

BOOK HOUSE BROWSERS . . . They came, they liked, they admired, the crowd continuously flowing through the entry, pre-dedication . . . Fae Smith, Laurie Patterson, Virginia Barkelew among the hostesses dispensing programs. In the crowd, Jackie & Spence Archer, SHE in charge of setting up the Orinda Art Center-sponsored exhibit, HE hoping to get off early the next morn for pheasant hunting.

COMPLIMENTS & INQUIRIES galore on Helen Stark's handsome old-worldish garden bench, her first woodcarving project. The armed four-seater in weathered-grey wood, its high back festooned w/sculpted fruits & flowers. It is her husband, Dr. Roger, by the way, who has gained such wide fame for his unique Chinese Ovens.

Lots of Talent Here

Clarence Overaa, builder of the butterfly-roofed bldg. & his pretty wife admiring the mosaics & pebble craft displayed in the lighted outdoor reading area . . . A clever Owl in tile by Marian Rands, one of h. ainsworth's students . . . A rich colored-glass mosaic of Three Wise Men by Ruth Howard, more pebble & mosaic art by Helen Gibbs, Gloria Brown, who was there too, & incidentally, has had one of her abstracts chosen for hanging at the S.F. Museum of Art. We like Mildred Simon's butterfly, Caroline Hecathorn's work & Kay Ratcliff's "peace" plaque.

Program Notes

Boy Boyle w/his dghtrs. arriving w/Scout son Peter who blew the bugle to officially open the dedication ceremony. Following presentation of two flags, a blessing & prayer by Rev. Chauncey Blossom. U.C. savant James Hart giving an inspirational address on the importance of libraries in our modern-day life.

Wayne Miller, (World Is Young) photog, catching a candid shot of a little boy who having surveyed the shelves for something suitable, settled himself down on the floor crosslegged to read, oblivious to all around him.

HANDSHAKES ALL AROUND for Chrmn. Perc Brown . . . The Ernest Spiegls chatting w/Ruth & Bill Mott, the Ken Courtrights, Stan Allen, Col. & Mrs. Braly. The Don Andersons w/their children taking in the paintings of "Orinda Scenes" displayed above the yellow bookshelves . . . One of Bear Creek Bridge by Robert Neuhaus . . . Ann Pennington's water color of the beloved Gone But Not Forgotten tiny old Santa Maria Church . . . The dramatic bold wood sculptures by Bohus Benes . . . Millie Winfree's hand-carved statue of Mother & Children . . . Fran Yedidia intrigued w/the intricate craftsmanship of Doris Wood's hand-carved box. Doris & her husband George just back from Europe.

MORE BOOKWORMS . . . Betty Madison & library assistant Margaret Olberg both in Xmas red dresses . . . A gift from her staff was the white orchid corsage worn by Librarian Sara Malinowsky on a delft blue lace frock which chicly matched the shade of her shoes . . . The Charles Merrells & their boys, boys, boys coming in from cubscout doings.

If you haven't made it to the Library yet, DO. You'll agree we're lucky people. It's a BIG Addition to our community!

Seventy-Six Trombones? Or Violins?

SO YOU CAN'T get tickets to see MUSIC MAN just once? Well, lucky Patio Music Shop proprietor Carl Schwedhelm sees it EVERY nite. From a front-row orchestra seat. In the orchestra pit! And he says he enjoys it more each time, the show being an easy one to play.

But the Music Man IS coming here. And a fitting name he has, too. A Mr. Bandel, of all things, who will join the music shop at Rheem to set up a School of Music. (Just what we've been looking for . . . how about you?) Anyhooo . . . Woodwinds & Strings will be taught in groups of 1-2-3 & 4 & the young people will have a wkly.

BAND OR ORCHESTRA rehearsal in Moraga's Little Red Schoolhouse. Mr. Mel Bandel, formerly cellist w/leading U.S. Symphonies & a Clarinetist w/the U.S. Marine & President's Band in Washington, is house-hunting here, he likes it so much, and incidentally, Dave Brubeck & family have been out this way checking w/the realtors, too.

SOME RACKET; Orinda Tennis Club crowd parlayed their game into a Buffet Supper & Dancing party held last Sat. nite at the Haciendas Rd. home of member Betty Chilton. The Frank Gillespies, Boone Robinsons, Stan Massies, Charlie & Helen Gibbs of those in line for the Lasagne Supper (which, from Nate's Delicatessen is worth a mouthwatering mention, they say!). Diane & Charles Ivy, Ann & Bob Grant, Jim & Adele Miller, the Henry Soubielles singing for their supper, arriving w/salad bowls & french bread tucked under their arms.

The Bill Brobecks among the partygoers, HE good-naturedly obliging w/a Waltz-clog step at everyone's insistence . . . Bill & Marge Douglass on hand, HE tinkling the keyboard for a songfest toward the end of the evening. Oh, YOU went home too early!

Joyce Thompson, Sleepy Hollow 6th grader & dghtr. of Dr. & Mrs. Stanley Thompson Winner of $10 worth of books in the Holmes Book Co.-sponsored essay contest last week. Her favorite book & character she wrote about in the winning comp—TOM SAWYER . . . and it's good to hear the old ones are still favorites.

DOMICILE DATA . . . Orindans, you hear, never move away. They get transferred. But if they DO move, it's just up the hill or down. Like Bill & Pat Fearey who are now At Home in the former Magill residence on El Toyonal, two houses away from their former place.

The Windy City is the new domain-destination for the Tokich family who will be leaving on a transfer shortly after the New Year. Mary will be very missed for all her civic, church & Dramateurs participation.

'Separate Tables' Opens Tonight in Town Hall

Tonight Dramateurs will present the first of eight showings of their premiere production since making Lafayette Town Hall their permanent home.

"Separate Tables," by Terence Rattigan, can also be seen tomorrow and Fridays and Saturdays the three following weekends.

Leading roles will be filled by Patricia Winkworth of Orinda who plays the dominated daughter, Sybil.

Jack Holder of Pleasant Hill enacts the bombastic major who becomes involved with her.

An ageing model, played by Alice Swenning, ex-husband — a newspaperman played by Pat O'Donnell, Walnut Creek, to complicate the plot.

The small English hotel where the action takes place has a number of, permanent guests. Their roles those taken by Judy Acker-Lafayette; Mildred Barr, Pleasant Hill; Wirtabel Harris, Orinda, and Fran van LobenSels, Lafayette.

Carl Rasmussen is being assisted in directing by Betty Reynolds, Orinda; Barbara O'Donnell, Walnut Creek, and Dorris Stilson, Orinda. Set design is by Richard Robinson.

Curtain time at the Town Hall Playhouse, Moraga Road at School Street, is 8:30 p.m. for all performances. Tickets and reservation information can be obtained from Mrs. Franklin Sher.

A fourth stocking or bootee will be added to the Barney Paine's fireplace by Christmas!

Harbingers of the Holidays

WITH ALL the Christmas Bazaars, big & little & early on the calendar, you should have made a sizeable dent in your shop-for list by now. There's Legal Aid's Christmas Cargoes running this week, Christmas Showcase too, by the Seven-College Council & the traditional Children's Hospital Exhibit Tea last week where a wondrous herd of determined lady shoppers practically broke the doors down before the official opening hr. of 11 at the Claremont Hotel.

TRYING TO LOOK tres domestic & dispensing homemade pickles at the Orinda Branch Booth was Cynthia Stampley . . . Alice Vaughan (waiting for Betty Pilgrim who was under the drier in the hotel salon) was making scads of sales w/the popular patio raffia dolls, scarecrow variety & handy for pulling out plant-ties. Noon-time departures were Elsie Harmon & Jane Brobeck, the latter's hat a pink-heather pouf of fur. Ditto Tat Welcome of WC ducking out early after working her Hilltop branch booth. Fran Sutliffe & Meg Schuler a teatime-twosome.

Taking orders for molded Mexican tinware were Arline Coburn, Elaine Moore . . . Ginny Kirby of Laf. & Orinda Barbara Ferrone, both blonde & look-alike members working the Cottonwood Booth, Marguerite Jackson arriving here for duty. She & George, did you know, are expecting a Fifth Addition next March. They have 4 daughters!

Attention is directed to the correlation of the Specifications with the Standard Specifications of the State of California, Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated August, 1954, as to materials, methods, and workmanship.

The Contractor shall perform with his own organization and workmen under his immediate superintendence, work of a value of not less than fifty percent (50%) of the value of all work embraced in the contract as required by the Specifications for this project.

The Contractor, whose bid is accepted, shall furnish the following bonds to the County (at no expense to the County) executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the County in the prescribed form:

(a) Faithful Performance Bond
(b) Labor and Materials Bond

Each of the above bonds shall be in an amount equal to one-half (50%) of the total amount bid by the Contractor in his Proposal.

All bids must be submitted on a Proposal form, obtainable from the County Public Works Department, and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty in the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00). Guaranties shall be in the form of certified check, or cashier's check, as provided in the section of the Specifications referring to Proposal Requirements. Bidder's Bonds will not be accepted. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the Contract.

The Contractor shall commence work within fifteen (15) days after approval of the Contract by the County.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Requests for forms, or information shall be addressed to the Office of the Public Works Department, Post Office Box 509, Room 235, Hall of Records, Martinez, California.

Proposals shall be filed with Walter T. Paasch, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Hall of Records, Martinez, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 11:00 a.m. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total, unless written request for the reading of such sub-totals and individual items of the bid is received at the time of the submission of Proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Public Works Director, to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking, after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

By order of the Board, dated this 12th day of November, 1958.

W. T. PAASCH, COUNTY CLERK and ex-officio CLERK OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, County of Contra Costa, State of California, by M. A. Smith, Deputy Clerk.

Christian Science

Recognition of man's true nature as God's spiritual image and likeness is a central theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" which will be heard in Christian Science services Sunday.

The Christian Science Churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek; and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park Street. Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

From the King James version of the Bible will be read the following (II Corinthians 5:1): "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Also bringing out man's spiritual nature is this passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Rightly understood, instead of possessing a sentient material form, man has a sensationless body; and God, the Soul of man and of all existence, being perpetual in His own individuality, harmony, and immortality, imparts and perpetuates these qualities in man,—through Mind, not matter" (280:25-30).

WHAT DO YOU plant when you plant a tree? You help to plant good citizenship, says Fred Davidson, Montecito School principal. Student council purchased trees for school grounds. Kiwanians Give Tree To Church

The Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in Orinda was chosen to receive the tree of the month for November. One is being given to a different church each month by the Lafayette Kiwanis Club.

In lieu of the tree, a gift certificate was presented to Rev. Albert Hidy, to be used upon completion of the new church building in 1959.

The Kiwanis program in support of the churches in the Lafayette-Orinda area commenced in September. The Orinda Community Church received a liquid amber tree.

The October tree of the month went to St. Perpetua Catholic Church in Lafayette. It will make its choice at a later date, having been given a gift certificate.

Tuesday at its regular noon meeting the Kiwanis Club has invited the representatives of all the churches to attend. While this will be an annual meeting, the clergy is always invited to be with the club at any nooon meeting which it is convenient for them to attend.

The Kiwanis Club has invited representatives of all churches to attend its noon meeting Tuesday at Happy Valley Inn.

You Just Can't Stuff This Down the Throats of Voters

If you'been reading the paper, or talking over a cup of coffee at the corner, or while riding the bus to and from work, then you know that the two county bond issue proposals on the November ballot failed to pass by a tremendous margin.

Those issues, propositions C and D, would have provided funds for the county to purchase facilities which it is now leasing, and to construct additional facilities which our expanding government will eventually require.

But something interesting happened when it became apparent that the bond issues had gone down the drain.

County Adiministrator Desmond Teeter proposed that the County Board of Supervisors impose a special levy of five cents on the tax rate next year and every year after that until the county's building needs are met.

THIS, IN EFFECT, is telling the voters: "All right, you wouldn't give us what we asked for, so we'll just take it. You'll have to pay for it anyway."

Now, when a bond issue needs a two-thirds majority to pass, but instead fails by a two-thirds majority, it doesn't take a sage to understand that the people are not convinced of the worthiness of the project.

And statements, such as those made by Mr. Teeter, can rub people the wrong way. At best, it is certainly not good public relations. This kind of thing has ramifications that are overwhelming, too.

Consider that the county is going to have to go to the people for more bond issues in the near future—bond issues that will be worthwhile and necessary.

AN EXAMPLE could well be another county road bond issue, similar to the $10 million bond issue passed a few years ago. That money was wisely spent and the county got a dollar's worth for each dollar spent.

It is conceivable that the county will want to call a bond issue of this nature in the near future.

But the voter has a long memory. He will remember how the county acted after the last two bond issues failed, and he might very well turn around and say to himself, "All right, if that's the way you're going to act, I can be mean too"... and he'll vote no every chance he gets.

So it is up to the county to do a job of convincing the people that there is a need. It is obvious that they are not convinced about the present issues.

We, for one, feel that the county must clean house a good deal when it comes to housing our governmental offices, and in planning for future facilities.

AS AN EXAMPLE of a situation where the county could vastly improve its present use of facilities, let's refer to a subject dealt with in a Sun editorial of October 24 of this year.

The county is presently microfilming some of its records, but there are many, many cases where storage and filing cabinets are still being used.

An example of what this system can do for the county is apparent in the sheriff's office. All of their records that were suitable for microfilming were processed recently, and it saved them an incredible amount of space.

The sheriff's office, which had been overflowing with records, found that it had available all the space it needed at the time.

AN EXAMPLE: The floor space required for one microfilm file, is the same floor space as that required for one four-drawer file. However, the microfilm file will hold the same contents as 60 four-drawer files.

This presents an idea of how much file space can be saved by microfilming. The county clerk's office, evidently, refuses to consider microfilming those records which can be processed in this way.

County Administrator Desmond Teeter has admitted that microfilming of records which can be stored this way legally would save the county a great deal of space.

We are not authorities on this subject. We can guess, however, that if the county would use this or allied procedures they would have a great deal of space available to them immediately.

This would then give them time to formulate and present a plan for expansion and growth that the people of the county might be willing to accept.

But matters like this cannot be stuffed down the voters throats. They won't stand for it long.

And good public relations dictates that some planning is in order.

Whom Shall We Blame?

Kids, of course, will be kids.

This is an obvious cliche, but like most cliches, there is a solid element of truth behind it.

Now, nobody objects to children acting like children. After all, we know that they will grow up in time. For this reason, mothers patiently put up with scribbled walls and the destructive influence of scissors in small hands.

This kind of destruction, however, occurs at home, where a strong parental hand can correct the situation. But there is another kind of destruction called vandalism, and that doesn't happen at home.

The Sun, unfortunately, has had to carry stories in the past detailing the escapades of youngsters who have entered empty homes and embarked on a spree of destruction.

THERE HAVE been cases where food has been thrown at the walls of lovely living rooms, and ink and paint poured on polished floors.

Fortunately, this sort of thing doesn't occur very often. And, in some ways, it is hard to blame the young boy with the rifle who just can't resist taking one shot at those beautiful big glass insulators on the tops of the telephone poles.

BUT YOU MUST blame the child. He hasn't learned yet how to live in society. He hasn't learned not to be destructive.

And this destructive influence can be carried to extremes, as in the case of the youngster who shoved a bomb into the back window of a local firehouse recently. Fortunately, nobody was killed, but they certainly could have been.

Builders and contractors face the constant headache of patrolling their construction sites, because homes and buildings under construction just seem to attract the youngsters, and some of them can't resist damaging things.

There is a positive side to this problem. Vandalism during the recent Halloween week was practically negligible, at least in this area. There were no reports of any serious nature from either the sheriff's office or local police departments.

Now, what about this problem of vandalism.

THERE CAN BE only one answer. It is the parents' responsibility. It is the parents' duty, in the first place, to teach their children a respect for property and for the rights of others.

In the final analysis, the children's actions are the parents' responsibility.

We know that most children are "good," and that there is a "bad apple" in every lot. We are only stating the the types of youthful vandalism mentioned above does occur—right here at home—and that it can only show one thing.

That is that some parent has failed somewhere along the line.

Illegal 'Pedalpushers'

By BOB RAPIDA

Every month there is an average of 20 to 30 bikes reported stolen to the Central County Substation of the Contra Costa Sheriff's Department.

In the city of Walnut Creek another 10 to 15 stolen bikes are reported each month.

IN ADDITION to the stolen bike reports in the central county substation there are 10 or more "lost" bikes being held, but none of these are on the stolen lists.

Few of these bikes are ever claimed so are sold at sheriff's auction.

Although few people consider stealing bikes as a major crime, we can assume that very few parents are inclined to buy a bike every time one is misplaced, lost or stolen.

WITH CHRISTMAS just around the corner it is certain to expect that there will be a number of new bikes around. The sheriff's office and police departments are equally certain that stolen bike reports will be at an all time high just after the first of the year.

Even though the bike thefts will occur, there will be little, if anything, that law enforcement agencies can do about it.

It would be a little far fetched to think that the sheriff's office or the police departments could spare men from regular duties to make a check of every bike in the county.

IT IS ALSO a fact that very few children and parents can give a police officer or investigating sheriff's deputy a good description of a bike, other than "it had two wheels and handlebars."

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has repealed its bicycle license law as being "administratively unworkable."

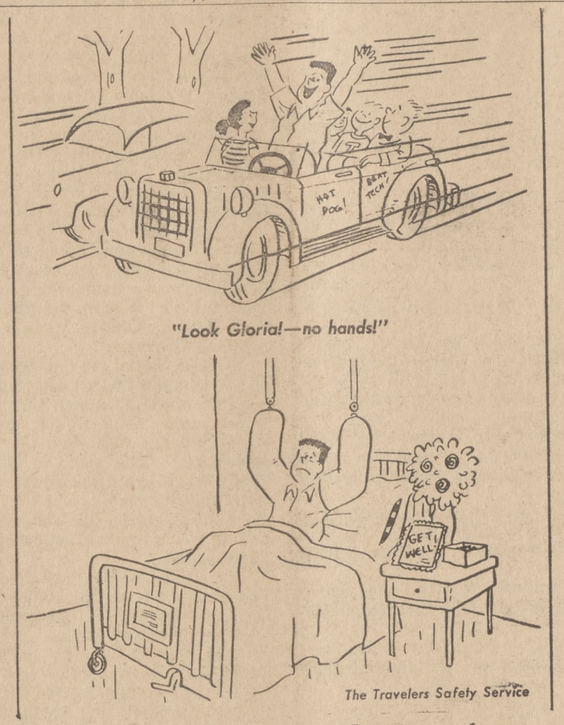

Of course, the license law did little good, since the first thing done when the bike was stolen was to rip the license off. How then can anybody prove whose bike it is or isn't?

THE LICENSE law was voluntary and few bike owners participated in the program.

So here's the problem: Bikes are being stolen, not so much for the sake of owning a bike, but for "joy riding."

Stolen bikes are usually found not far from where they were taken and usually are in sad condition.

Law enforcement agencies can do little about the condition of a bike when found.

Sunday Spin in Suburbia: Light Bonemeal Flurries

By MAMIE MONHAHAN

A COLD Button-up-your-carcoat kind of day, a smoky-grey gloom of a sky playing tag w/patches of blue . . . We will go for a Sunday drive, just like the City Folk do.

Climb into the car, turn the Symphony on. Serene Longine Hour. Can't shut the kids off, so turn the symphonette off. Everything look deserted, not a soul in sight, except the Sunday Drivers along the highway. (A Sunday Driver siANYONE who passes father up.)

Picked up some primulas at Orchard Nursery. Heard that Jack Schneider & family are in Europe, due home any day. Bought some bulbs & bonemeal, the latter which the kids poked a hole in the bag, got a whiff of & wanted to know Whose bones & Why, How? Details given. After which reprimanded them for poking holes through things they have no business being into. Slight floury film settles over father's clean car.

IN & OUT THE COUNTRY LANES . . . Still deserted. Everybody hugging the hearthside w/the Sunday papers, watching TV. Houses w/lots of cars parked in front means they're in for a busy day. Big Sunday Dinner.

OUT WALNUT CREEK, bumped into Aileen Haggerty, local writer. Congratulated good friend having heard her name will appear in 1st Ed. of "Who's Who of America Women" . . . THIS honor for her Red Cross work in France, Balkans during World War I, her int'l relations work in Cuba as ed. of Cuba Topics mag & writer for both Havana-American, Havana Post.

The charming lady, w/Miami Herald 1 6yrs., is current pres. of East Bay Women's Press Club and reminded us that Kay Wahl (who columns "She Also Cooks") has invited SAME group to hold their Christmas Party in her Reliez Valley home, Dec. 11.

Wondered how WC's Sally Montagne made out as Oakland Ski Club's entry at the annual Bay Area Snow Queen Ball at Mark last Fri. . . . This mother of FIVE who still wears a Size 9 dress, ditto size ski pants! She & husband Dean both Avid Skiers. Stopped in drive-in doing brisk business in hot coffeet & cold people. Wondered if Rosemary Scott of WC was getting down to earth after appearing on "This Is Your Life" last wk. as one of Colleen Townsend's former roomates in a dorm they dubbed "The Dug-out" during their College Daze.

THE BACK ROAD HOME, the only sign of life, Ken Morrish getting in a little golf practice in yard & girl plodding along on horse, pensive & pretty. The girl pensive & pretty, NOT the horse!

Smoke waftin gin abstract forms from all the modern houses, more Curly Americans from the chimneys of the story-book houses all in a row out Rheem Way, the ones w/built-ins — built-in bird houses, ruffled curtains & weathervanes. Here, a couple conferring on a planting problem. Lone man along Donald Dr. hugging pyracantha proudly as we pass by. New Homeowner, obviously!

Found Miramonte's tennis courts ALL empty & just because we had no rackets along! Followed a mysterious whirrrr sound to the field. Found fine young man in red shirt & his father putting on an aerial show w/gas-motor models. Turned off ignition & watched plane's aerobatics, loopy loops & easy landings! Turned on Longine. Sat serene. Youngsters stayed out of car. Stopped at T-Bones for snack, somebody's cold pooch talking us out of half a hot one.

PULLED INTO GARAGE as sky grew ominous. Hurriedly planted primulas. Forgot about hole in bag & left a Hansel & Gretzel trail all through the garden. End of Sunday drive. And not so Gloomy Sunday after all!

Thinking of Things That We should be Thankful for

By JOYCE BARNUM

Those farsighted Pilgrims!

In these fast moving days would we take time to count our blessings if those, hardy early-Americans hadn't set aside a "Be Thankful" day?

WHEN YOU MAKE up your list of Thankful Items for Thursday, any order will do. It's fun. And you'll be intrigued to find the number of good things to add to your count.

We've been jotting down a few from time to time, and a partial rundown shows that we're thankful:

That two years ago, the valiant Freedom Fighters of Hungary reminded us what the first Thanksgiving Day was really all about. And in so doing gave the unforgettable message to complacent peoples everywhere that love of freedom is an undying, unquenchable quality that burns within men; a stubborn spark that lingers long after the flame has been extinguished.

That our son has equal enthusiasm for sports event and/or a good book.

That elections are over and we can stow away our earmuffs until the next time around.

That we managed to see the Van Gogh collection, not once—but twice!

(It'll be at the De Young for another 10 days with the museum staying open during evening hours for the last week, if you want a prized Thankful Item for your list.)

That we swung tickets for the "Music Man" before our album of same was completely worn out.

That Boris Pasternak wrote "Dr. Zhivago."

That the cold war is heated only by verbal big blasts exchanged with Russia's leaders.

That we have FM radio.

That our county jigsaw patches of freeway or beginning to form a picture of things to come.

THAT THE DOG who finally and inevitably jumped through the patio door in a spray of flying, crashing glass escaped with only one small cut on a paw!

That our grandmother was born a Southerner and instilled in us the principle that only through education can intolerances and prejudices and fears be wiped out. And to see this borne out by the teen agers in Little Rock. (The majority of them.)

That there IS always much that is good in the world. And that maybe next year will be better.

Letters to The Editor

DEAR EDITOR:

(The following letter was received by Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer, from Arthur Joseph Mitchell, territorial life manager for Beneficial Standard Life Insurance Co., Oakland, and forwarded to The Sun).

This letter is regarding your article in The Sun warning the public of an individual by the name of Mitchell whom you believed to be selling insurance and using the County Health Office position as a means to solicit this business in an illegal manner.

I am sure your article was written in good faith and for the protection of the general public. However, I, personally, am in the insurance business and on occasions work in that area. There could be some repercussion quite detrimental to my name and that of my company as a result of this article.

I have never used the phone nor have I ever stated I represented the County Health Office for the purpose of entering a home to discuss insurance.

It is an unfortunate coincidence that my name and the other party's name is similar and I respectfully request that you take steps as soon as possible to clarify this situation through the same paper.

ARTHUR JOSEPH MITCHELL
Territorial Life Manager

BOUQUETS

DEAR EDITOR:

Bouquets to Hagstrom's for their beautiful new building in Orinda. It is indeed in keeping with our lovely natural surroundings. Would that the others who recently built and are now building could have had the same vision of these people and the Mobil and Chevron folks.

Workshop Is Today At College

Mutual problems of newsmen and people in the field of public information will be discussed today at the Second Annual Public Relations Workshop, Diablo Valley College. It will start at 2 p.m.

Co-sponsors are the Contra Costa Press Club and Contra Costa Junior College District.

Lt. Col. James G. Chestnutt, deputy information officer for the Sixth U.S. Army, San Francisco Presidio, and for many years a bay area news reporter and editor, will be the afternoon keynote speaker.

The dinner speaker, Robert W. Evans of San Francisco, assistant director of public relations for U.S. Steel Corporation's western division, will be introduced by Neil Dickson of the Pittsburg Post Dispatch and president of the press club.

Evans spent 16 years as a newsman in western Pennsylvania before going into public relations. He is a member of the San Francisco Press and Union League Club, the San Francisco Public Relations Round Table, and the Public Relations Society of America.

Between the two talks there will be two panel discussions. Dwight Bentel, head of the journalism department of San Jose State College will be the moderator.

Panelists will include Philip S. Breck of Breck and Associates, Oakland; Joe T. Jackson, supervisor of publications, C&H Sugar, Crockett; Ed Bradley, managing editor, Antioch Ledger; Jeff Greer, editor, Contra Costa Gazette.

Don F. McLaughlin, P.T.&T. news supervisor for northern California; Albert E. Gilbert, northern California manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association; and John Ferris, Oakland Tribune.

Workshop arrangements are in charge of Hal C. Cheney, coordinator of business and distributive education for the junior college district.

Juvenile Hall Auxiliary Is Seeking Help

An appeal for holiday-time assistance was put in the mails this week in Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Alamo, Danville and Orinda through the efforts of Mrs. Jack B. Cullen, Walnut Creek area vice president of the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary of Contra Costa County.

Women from the Sun Valley area assisting Mrs. Cullen and the auxiliary are the Mmes. Alex Barr, Paul Allen, Dale Halbert, Donald Johnson, William Allen, Dale Lambert and Arnold Kennedy.

The appeal is in a letter written by Jane Lonergan of Danville, auxiliary president. It said in part:

"Christmas is our biggest project and this year as always the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary is buying gifts for children and will appreciate your joining us in this happy enterprise.

"You may sponsor a child's Christmas, buy a sweater for a teen-age girl, a sport shirt for a boy or help give a party in the Cottage for our abandoned children (ages 2-18).

"Your Christmas will be happier when you share it with our children, we do hope you will join us.

Under The Sun

Let's Find Out Why Kids Are Very Funny Animals!

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Children are very funny animals.

At age 10½, Johnny may be a holy terror. Then, why at 11½ is he the most cooperative angel in the world? Why does Susie eat beautifully with a fork and six months later she uses nothing but fingers? What makes teenagers act like teenagers?

Yes, children are funny animals and it's interesting and rather vital to know why. If you want the answers in detail and with amazing accuracy, you, of course, buy or get from the library the Dr. Gesell books.

(By Arnold Gesell and Frances Ilg: "Infant and Children in Culture of Today" covers infant to 10; and "Youth, the Years from 10 to 16.")

The funniest story about these books in our household is that our kids now read them and find them very funny. They seem to take comfort from some of the pages.

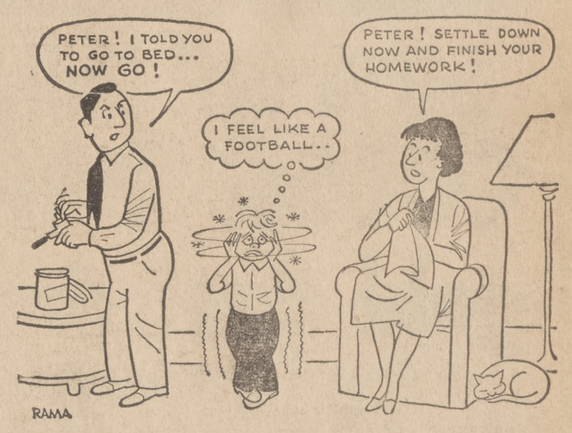

Several weeks ago I sent for 250 pamphlets entitled, "Growing Pains," by Dr. Henry Rollins. It is published as a public service by the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Dr. Rollins writes, "After consulting with authorities about the problems connected with bringing up children, after analyzing the thousands of letters we have received, and after talking with parents and their children, we decided that a lack of mutual understanding causes most of the heartaches.

"Through our cartoons we have tried to hold up a mirror that all might look into. We hope that parents will see how the world looks from their children's point of view. We hope that children will be able to understand why their parents act as they do," the doctor concludes.

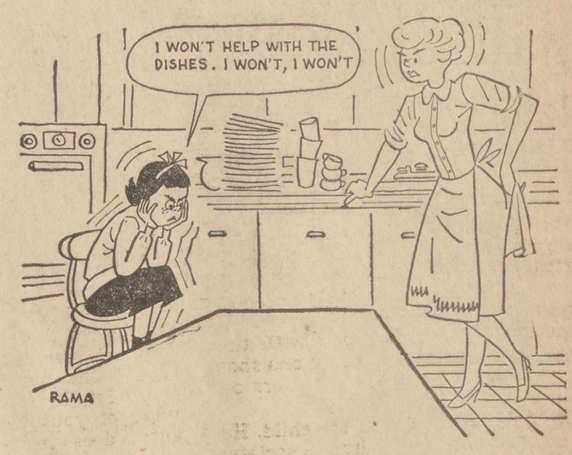

If you want a copy of this humorous but vital booklet, send a stamped (4-cent), self-addressed, regular-size envelope to: Service Department, The Sun. No note is necessary, although any comments on this subject or suggestions for The Sun would be most welcome.

Here are several cartoons from the booklet:

What to Do!

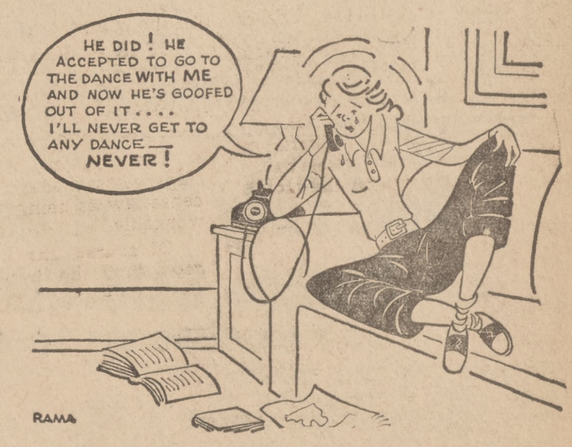

Constant conflict and split authority are among the worst things that can happen in a home. No wonder Junior feels like a football. It would be much better if his parents would talk things over freely and calmly so Junior would know exactly what is expected of him.

Sitdown Strike

Yesterday Betty was an angel. She couldn't do enough to help her mother. Today it's another story. Mother is frantic. Betty's strange behaviour may be just a sign of her age.

During these years she is buffeted by many bewildering emotions which her mother should try to understand. If mother remains calm, yet firm, these squalls will soon blow over.

Cinderella

Don't laugh. This is a tragic moment. Teenagers feel deeply. Of course she will go to more dances, even look back on this and smile. Today she needs understanding and kindness.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

The fairways of the Contra Costa Country Club were well traveled on a recent Saturday when members of the "Divoteers Club" and their husbands engaged in a "two-ball foursome" match.

Following the fun-filled afternoon a potluck dinner was enjoyed in the club house which was a riot of color, dressed up in autumn leaves and blooms. Comical scarecrows greeted the players as they arrived from their "grueling" games.

Golf balls were presented to the winners by the outgoing president, Margaret Gosch, and the incoming prexy, Marilyn Weaver. Incidentally—congratulations to the club for the great improvement in parking facilities and the lovely new landscaping adjacent to the terrace.

Just getting away from it all . . .

Each year two "buddies"—Bev (Mrs. Bill) Curtis and Evelyn (Mrs. Donald) Anderson have a standing date to GET AWAY FROM IT ALL! Last week they spent five days in Reno where they headquartered at the "Mapes Hotel." The gals made the trip by air and thoroughly soaked up the luxury of sleeping late and dining out.

Wish I could say that Bev returned refreshed and eager to continue with her duties as one of the chairmen of the Therapy Center's "Christmas Gift Box"—but, sad to say, when we talked her voice was a bare whisper and she was down with a miserable cold. However, knowing her, she'll be up and at it soon—with no holds barred.

Hate to leave, but that's it!

The very popular Weller Phillips family departed by plane last Saturday for Baton Rouge, La., where they will live—due to a business transfer. Although they hated to leave, one consolation was the fact that they had lived there seven years ago and had loved it.

Close friends in the Phillips' neighborhood gathered a few nights before at Betty and Jack Griffith's home on Elmwood Drive, Walnut Creek. Following a delicious dinner the group enjoyed an evening of reminiscent conversation and dancing. Evelyn and Weller were presented with a gift of lovely crystal. Others present were the William Imbries, George Heins, Rome Goulys and Steve Desimones.

En route to Baton Rouge the Phillips and their sons, Weller Jr., John and Mark, planned a short visit with former Walnut Creek residents now living in New Orleans.

On Tuesday members of the Towhee unit met at Jo White's home on the Diablo Country Club grounds for a final coordination meeting before the "Towhee Tinsel Tea" which will take place at the club December 2.

Arriving a bit late, after having attended the "Diablo Forum," were Ellen Bradbard, Helene Rodier and Marge Ball. All of the girls have been meeting twice weekly for "work parties" and their busy fingers have made some of the most beautiful gift and decorative items imaginable. Outstanding each year are the glamorous swags made by Alice Cashin, Mary Lou Priewe, Jinny Cuenin and Helene Rodier. Was so glad to hear that there will be many inexpensive items available this year.

And the horsey set comes through!

Much to the dlelight of all—a fairly new member, Molly Jane Monheit, has painted a number of handsome horses in water colors—the perfect answer for equestrian minded youngsters and friends. Molly is very active in art circles in our area. Another outstanding feature will be a $50 portrait to be painted by generous and well known Gertrud Stockton.

Bev Watson, in charge of the three tea tables, happily reported that Robert Sawyer, McDonald Nursery and Mrs. Alma Blakesley have kindly consented to do the arrangements. Now all of the members are literally "steaming" in their kitchens as they prepare the hundreds of succulent persimmon puddings which are served at the tea as well as sold—package in attractive metal boxes. Kay and Edward Wanous and daughter, Debbie, are in Los Angeles where they are enjoying a combined business-pleasure trip.

'Twas Charles Rodier's birthday last Saturday and his ever lovin', ever lovely Helene surprised him with a dinner party to which the Robert Wisecarvers, Ed Wanouses and Gerald Balls were invited.

Mary and Chet Hendrick have returned from an invigorating vacation. Location—an island near Seattle. Object—salmon fishing.

A dinner party was given recently to honor Jay (Mrs. Tom) Bond on her birthday. Jay is a member of the Hummingbird unit as is Mary Jane Burke at whose home a group of fellow Sunday School teachers met for a meeting.

Dorothy and King Crosno and their four small sons have moved from their home on Rudgear Road to a new home—also in Walnut Creek. A large group of friends is planning a house warming at the new address—with a potluck buffet as the highlight.

A local convey takes off!

A regular convoy of cars filled with smartly dressed ladies made its way through the tunnel a week ago Wednesday. The Claremont Hotel was literally buzzing with activity for it was "Exhibit Tea" time again. This annual affair, sponsored by all of the branches of Children's Hospital, is one of the biggest and most successful events of the year and is truly a joy to attend. Mrs. Robert Bruen was chairman for the Walnut Branch's booth and Mrs. Perry Holmes was same for the Laurel Juniors.

The traditional Walnut Tree was made by Mrs. Robert Preece (imagine! wrapping those THOUSANDS of walnuts). Hand puppets made by the Laurel Juniors were so cunning that they were all gone by 2 o'clock. Many guests included luncheon in the Garden Room—complete with fashion show—in their plans.

Spotted here and there the Mmes. Ferris Fain, Bill Rigney, William Nero, James McGeehon, Alan Brooks, Bruce Lee, Warren Ronneberg, Richard Martin, Monroe Smith, Donald Coffin, Donald Kientz (who is a member of the hospital's council), Allen Madison, John Griffith, William Imbrie, Jack L. Block, Robert Gilfillan, C. C. Heister, Edward Mannon, John V. Tague, Robert F. Teddy and Bill Winslow.

Fred C. Blumberg has been elected to the Pleasant Hill Park and Recreation District Board. Fred's wife, Mildred is very active member of the Flamingo Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, as are many of the women mentioned in the remainder of this week's column. Susie and George Bruns Jr., Rosemary and Rod Davies and Violet and Lee Lorenzon were guests in Lorna and John Tererbaugh's home preceding a recent dance at the Contra Costa Country Club.

A week earlier the same group, with the addition of Gloria and Fred Ackerman, attended a dance at the Meadowbrook Country Club.

Persis and Walter Reed Jr. celebrated their anniversary in San Francisco—first at "El Matador" and then with dinner at "India House." Their close friends the Frank Fords and Bob Dances were happy to help them.

The Fred Blumbergs and the Charles Bowers attended the production "Music Man" last week—stopping at the Treasure Island Officers Club for dinner en route. They were accompanied by both Mildred's and Phyllis' mothers.

Jaycee's Holiday Formal Is Nov. 29 at Sequoyah

Walnut Creek Junior Chamber of Commerce members and their wives have been busy making plans for their social event of the season, the fourth annual "Holiday Formal.'

It will be held this year at Sequoyah Country Club, Oakland, November 29..

The "10 till 2" invitational affair is expected to draw a large group from the East Bay and across the Bay because of the Oakland location.

Mr. and Mrs. Roert Covert of 2 Sheldon Court are general chairmen. Plianning the attractive decorations are the Robert Williams and Dick Lauers.

They are using a white, gold and red theme. Table decorations will look festive with candles, gold and white holly leaves and styrofoam. A huge tree will be a center of interest in the lounge room and a small white tree will enhance the club entrance.

Invitations are out to Jaycees, their friends, club leaders and local officials. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Flynn and the Al Riordons are in charge of this committee.

The Thomas Haspers have been busy preparing the dance bids which will be in the form of a poinsettia and will have a gold pencil attached.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hart are in charge of tickets and the Fred Sanders of publicity. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hartman are assisting in arrangements. He is the club president.

Big Game Festivities To Highlight Clubs' Weekend

Sun Society

Meadowbrook, Orinda, Diablo Plan Celebrations

There'll be parties galore tonight, tomorrow morning and tomorrow night for all you University of California and Stanford fans.

HERE IN THE Central Contra Costa area alone, the east of the tunnel social set is well prepared to highlight the football festivities with hundreds of individual and organizational get togethers.

Leading the parade of festivities are the three resplendent country clubs in the area: Diablo, Orinda and Meadowbrook.

A climax to the excitement of the Cal-Stanford football game is the "Big Game Night Dance" and Buffet Supper planned at Meadowbrook Golf Club tomorrow evening at 9.

Members and guests will gather at the club on Reliez Valley and Grayson Roads after the game for an evening of dancing and friendly debate over the day's game.

The clubhouse will be decorated in keeping with the college theme using gay chrysanthemums and colorful banners to represent both teams, complete with goal posts and life sized symbols of each college.

A BUFFET SUPPER will be served at 1 a.m. in Zufall Hall.

Although the dance is semi-formal, all caught in the game traffic are encouraged to come-as-you-are.

In keeping with the festive mood Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taylor are having a cocktail party for friends in their home in Alamo.

Serving on the dance committee are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hupman of Pleasant Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wolff of Orinda, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brook of Pleasant Hill in charge of refreshment and foods and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Risdon of Lafayette.

While the festivities are underway at Meadowbrook, Orinda Country Club will be in the limelight across the Briones Ridge.

THERE'LL BE a Big Game brunch before the Big Game and then buses will transport the many avid Orinda Club fans to Memorial Stadium at Berkeley.

Then, when the game is over, the debates will start on the buses destined to converge on the club's dance floor and cocktail lounge.

Many, many cocktail parties are planned by Orinda Club members before and after the club's activities.

There'll be more fun, food and refreshment at Diablo Country Club for fans of the Red and Blue teams, with many more parties planned at Diablo by club members and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gass Feted On Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Gass, residents of Lafayette for seven years, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday afternoon at the Lafayette Methodist Church.

They have three children, Kenneth of Eureka, Elizabeth Madsen, Willows; a daughter, Lucile Hagen, Santa Monica, and eight grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Gass were the owners and operators of a sewing center store in Vallejo for over 20 years before their retirement.

They were married in Santa Barbara November 18, 1908.

About 150 guests attended the reception.

All three children were present, as was Mrs. Ann Cottrell of Ojai, Mr. Gass' sister; Mrs. Anita Hopwood, Santa Barbara, Mrs. Gass' cousin. Both were present at the Gass Wedding ceremony in 1908.

A feature of the reception was the couple's recital of their wedding vows for a second time, with the Rev. Page White officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Gass recently moved to Walnut Creek. They reside at 1 Evergreen Court.

Jerusalem Topic for Hadassah

Diablo Valley Chapter of Hadassah held a membership meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harold Jaffe, 2633 San Antonio Dr., Walnut Creek.

Dr. Cecil Allweis, Professor of the Department of Physiology, Hebrew University, Jerusalem, was the guest speaker. His topic was "A Student's Life in Jerusalem.'

Dr. Allweis was born in Manchester, England, where he received his BS degree at the University of Manchester. In 1957 he received his Ph.D. at the university in Jerusalem. He is now on leave of absence from Israel, doing research on brain metabolism at the University of California, working with Dr. Chaitkoff.

November is Hadassah Medical Organization month. Mrs. J. Lossow is chairman of this committee and will be in charge of the evening.

After the program, refreshments will be served. All ladies in this area are cordially invited to attend.

Lafayette Women's Club Plans Bazaar

At the December 2 meeting of Lafayette Women's Club an annual event of interest to all members and their friends will take place at Veterans' Memorial Hall in Lafayette.

At 10:30 a.m. a bazaar consisting of hand made articles such as candles, Christmas novelties, aprons, floral arrangements, candies, homecooked foods and ther items will go on sale.

Mrs. R. M. McNairy was named general chairman by Mrs. Harold E. Mutnik, president.

IN CHARGE OF the sale of articles sewn by members is Mrs. C. E. Keathley. Mrs. James D. Raymond's department will sell cookies, fruit cake, other baked goods, jellies, stuffed dates. etc.

Mrs. Earl Plescia and her committee will sell holiday floral arrangements. Hand made dolls, Christmas decorations and other novelties will be in charge of Miss Margaret Miller, Mrs. R. M. McNaisy, and their assistants, all of whom have been busy for weeks preparing for this event.

A BUSINESS MEETING at 1:30 p.m. the same day will follow the Santa Sales. Also, according to Mrs. Walter S. Meyer, program chairman, a program of Christmas music will be presented by Diablo Choral Group, directed by Nico Snel. with Alma Daniels as accompanist. Snel is a graduate of the School of Music in Amsterdam, Holland.

Assisting Mrs. W. E. Danforth, refreshments chairman, will be the Mesdames James B. Harbuck, W. B. Ellis, Richard Alpen, Walter Weidlein, Perry G. Harrington, Sigrid Webber, Irwin D. Miller and Earl Plescia.

The Mesdames Stewart Wade and Naomi Dahlberg are helping with table decorations.

Mrs. Thomason Will Speak to Art Association

"Contemporary Art on the Continent" will be Mrs. Jesse Thomason's topic at the next Diablo Art Association meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at Walnut Creek's Recreation Center on Civic Drive.

Mrs. Thomason recently returned from an European tour where she studied art conditions and saw many art shows including those at the Brussels World Fair.

Mrs. Thomason is a well-known Bay Area painter. She is an early member of the Diablo Art Association and served as its president in 1954 and 1955.

BEFORE THE talk, President Robert Hoskinson will lead an important business meeting to elect officers for the coming year.

He urged all members to attend. No meeting will be held in December.

Owen Nelson, membership chairman, said several new members have been accepted. They are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Andrews, Mrs. Lillian Lees, and Mrs. Ester Pierce of Walnut Creek, Mrs. Bettrix Carlson of Concord, Neil E. Anderson of Danville, and Mrs. Leon J. Poupeney of Orinda.

A NEW PAINTING class will be conducted by Louis Gutierrez on Thursday mornings from 10 to 12 at 2047 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Also of interest is the upcoming one-man show of Otto Schuchard at Oakland's Artists Center Gallery, 3124 Lakeshore Avenue, from November 30 to December 13.

This exhibit will represent the past 50 years of Mr. Schuchard's art work in wash and pen and ink drawings and watercolor paintings.

Jr. Guild Welcomes Neophytes

At a luncheon held at the Junior Center of Art and Science in Mosswood Recreation Center, November 13, 24 new members were welcomed to the Junior Guild.

The Guild is an organization established to provide volunteer help and fund raising events to benefit the Center.

Present at the luncheon was Martin Metal, Center director, spoke on its activities, and invited those present to become acquainted with his Junior Museum exhibit, "World of Wood." Members were introduced to officers of the Guild by their president, Mrs. Lindsey Howden.

Each officer detailed her particular job and the volunteer jobs to the new members.

New members who were introduced include:

The Mesdames Walter J. Bemiss, Philip Chapman, William Fletcher, all of Orinda; Laurence Kehoe, Walnut Creek, and Richard Creaver, Lafayette.

Decor Discussed By Sigma Kappas

Meeting at the new home of Mrs. Everett Fuller, 10 White Oak Drive, Woodland Hills, Lafayette, Diablo Valley Sigma Kappa members met on Tuesday for dessert and program. Co-hostesses were Mrs. H. M. Witt and Mrs. Daniel Murphy of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. E. E. Fuller will demonstrate "Christmas Decoration Ideas" and will be introduced by Mrs. Robert Hooker, program chairman. Guests brought samples of favorite holiday decor, ornaments and tree decorations.

At the conclusion of the program an auction of holiday items and decorations was held.

All Diablo Valley Sigma Kappas are invited to join this group and may call Mrs. Alan Seibert, secretary, at AT 3-3526

Jasmine Branch Gala Party Tickets are Now Available

Jasmine Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay will hold its initial benefit event, a festive pre-holiday supper dance aptly called "First Blooming," November 29 at the Walnut Creek Elks Club.

Announcement of the party date comes from the chairman of the hostess Branch, Mrs. Jack Setzer of Pleasant Hill. Mrs. Douglas Richards of Orinda will be chairman of the affair, with Mrs. Burton Mason of Walnut Creek her assistant.

Reservations for Jasmine Branch's "First Blooming" are being taken by Mrs. Edwin Hanford of Walnut Creek with Mrs. John Morken of Lafayette as ticket chairmen.

Mrs. Burton Mason and Mrs. Geoffry Thomas are co-chairmen of decorations. A ham and turkey buffet is being planned and music for dancing will be provided by Kenneth Marshall's quintet.

Orvall Sutton Welcomes

Al Nye, New Staff Member of "Sutton's Shoes of Lafayette"

Al Nye, owner of The Shoe Box in Walnut Creek for 10 years, shakes hands with Orvall Sutton, owner of Sutton's Shoes of Lafayette after joining the staff of Sutton's.

Mr. Nye will be manager and buyer for the children's, boy's and men's shoe departments, as well as for the children's "Corrective" and "Prescription" shoe and "Capezio" dance footwear departments.

Al Nye is a specialist in children's regular and corrective footwear and is considered the best in this area. He welcomes all of his many friends to "Sutton's Shoes of Lafayette" and hopes to see them in soon!

Beta Sigma Phi Installs New Officers

Tau Nu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a pledge ritual and installation dinner for the newly formed Chi Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, the first Beta Sigma Phi Chapter for Martinez, at Nick's in Martinez, on November 13.

The girls pledged and installed as officers were Martha Borgeson, president; Barbara Prosser, vice president; Jo Jesfjeld, extension officer; Pat Bennett, recording secretary; Ethel Chaney, treasurer; Florence Liptien, corresponding secretary; Peggy Knowles, civil defense; Madelyn Johnston, sponsor; Jean Mowrey, Gloria Borgeson, Donna Cellini.

There is also a transfer from Canada—Dorothy Corden.

Tomorrow evening, Tau Nu Chapter will have a "Come As You Are" party, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Anderson, Betty Lane, Pleasant Hill.

The social committee of this chapter surprised the members and their husbands in the early morning hours by coming around to the homes armed with a flash camera.

They plan to present the couples with their pictures during the party.

Gail Morrish Barnum Weds William A. Tayor

Gail Morrish Barnum became Mrs. William Alton Taylor in a ceremony November 1 in the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

The bride, who wore a gown of imported bridal taffeta with fitted bodice and long full skirt extending to a chapel length train, is the daughter of the Louis Emory Barnums of Lafayette.

A reception was held at their home, 3323 Springhill Road, following the ceremony.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Russell Taylor of Corvallis, Ore., and the late Mr. Taylor.

BOTH BRIDE and groom attended Oregon State College in Corvallis where Gail was affiliated with Alpha Phi Sorority, and William with Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Gail is the niece of Mrs. Will F. Morrish and Dr. and Mrs. Harold Bryant of Orinda, Mr. Mrs. William Whitcomb of Berkeley and the Robert Barnums of Pleasant Hill. Mrs. Vivian Bailey of Berkeley is her great aunt.

Assisting in receiving guests at the reception were her cousins, the Mesdames Bayley Dorris of Alturas and Edward E. Cassady of Berkeley.

Hosts for the wedding rehearsal dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Cassady.

MR. BARNUM gave his daughter in marriage. Holding her three-tiered shoulder veil was a cap of lace and pearls. She carried stephanotis and white carnations.

Maid of honor was Gail's sister, Kathie. Bridesmaids were Charlene Ross of Toledo, Ore., and Brenda Billington of Berkeley. They wore shrimp colored chiffon dresses and matching hats.

Carl Cassady was best man and ushers were Fred Joyce III or Orinda and Ron Wallace of Berkeley.

At the reception Mrs. Barnum wore a champagne colored sheath dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace gown with a white feather hat.

The newlyweds will make their home in Berkeley.

Welcome Wagoners Plan For Christmas Luncheon

Mrs. John Wolverton of 4019 Tilden Lane, Lafayette, will be hostess to the Lafayette Welcome Wagon Club at a Christmas luncheon December 11. Holiday decorations made by the Garden Group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Norman Nicholson will be on sale with all proceeds going towards the Lafayette Community Center.

At the November meeting at the home of Mrs. Laurie Chartier of 3219 Gold Court, Mrs. Lynn Gillard, well known decorator, guided members on a tour of the well decorated Christmas home.

From the popcorn and beaded wreath on the door, to the kissing mistletoe, to the crystal hall-tree, to the spiced cider surrounded by Della Robia wreaths in the dining room, to the red velvet sleigh with matching reindeer in the bedroom—all were shown as do-it-yourself projects for the entire family.

Mrs. Gillard's statement, "I believe that being copied is the highest kind of flattery" was taken as a go-ahead signal by many members of the club.

Outside activities of the Welcome Wagon Club are increasing with the formation of the Drama Group under the leadership of Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw at her home at 1164 Upper Happy Valley Road. A play has been chosen and a director is needed. Applicants may apply to Mrs. Bradshaw at AT 3-8736.

Mrs. Kenneth Bergman was named chairman to formulate plans for a card party to be held during January. Assisting her are Mrs. Frank Newman and Mrs. Stanley Dietrick. Mrs. Dietrick was winner of the door prize and will donate the prize for the December meeting.

Bazaar Held To Benefit Lynn School

Fourteen women's organizations helped the Council for Retarded Children, sponsors of the Lynn Schools, at its annual Christmas Bazaar at the Walnut Creek Veterans Memorial Building last Friday and Saturday.

In charge of booths were Alpha Lambda Chapter of Omega Nu, Pleasant Hill Women's Club, Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club, Sigma Kappa Alumnae, and the Walnut Creek Suburbanettes.

Other groups which contributed time and bazaar articles were the Alamo Women's Club, the Countess Club, Beta Sigma Phi, Castle Hill Sewing Club, Pan Club, Twelve-Fifteen Club, Mothers of Twins Club, and Diablo Chapter of Red Cross, and the Clipped Wings Club.

Mrs. Reggie Rice of American Legion Post 115 was chairman of the refreshment booth.

A white elephant booth was under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Kuehn of the Walnut Creek Suburbanettes.

The Parcel Post booth was run by Mrs. Ann Shanck of the Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club.

Mills Club Host To Students at Buffet Supper

Sunday evening the Orinda Mills Club entertained a group of Mills students at a buffet supper at the home of the club's president, Mrs. Kirk Miles.

Among the students attending were Miss Reed Isbell of Anchorage, Alaska; Miss Katie Moors of Minneapolis, Miss Barbara Manning of Redlands, and Miss Nancy Cox of Morristown, West Virginia.

The affair also served to celebrate the engagement of Miss Cox to Daniel Orcutt of Syracuse, New York. Their betrothal was announced last week on the college campus.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Russell Gilwee, Mrs. Ben Randall. Mrs. Stewart Henderson, and Mrs. Miles.

Ygnacio Valley Women Meet

Members of the Ygnacio Valley Women's Club met for luncheon at Sid's Restaurant in Concord last Friday at 12:30.

Mrs. William Henning of Orinda discussed and demonstrated decorations for the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

Mrs. George Arentz and Mrs. L. J. Barker were hostesses. Mrs. Charles Downing was reservations chairman.

Juniors Sponsor Bazaar To Benefit Retarded

A candlelight ceremony was held Tuesday evening at the Women's Clubhouse in Walnut Creek. Mrs. Lawrence Kulchin and Mrs. James Story were initiated into the Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. John Knudson and Mrs. Charles Clausen, membership chairmen, conducted a coffee social hour to honor the initiates at the Knudson home on La Vista Road.

The initiation ceremony highlighted the November social meeting. Members enjoyed an evening of cards and refreshments.

Conducting the initiation was Mrs. William Claraty, president, and the Mesdames James McClintick, first vice president; John Knudson, membership; Howard Adams, senior co-ordinator.

Club members staffed a booth and sold "white elephants' at the Bazaar for the East Contra Costa Council for the Retarded last weekend at the Veterans Memorial Building.

Mrs. Robert Shanck, mental health chairman, was in charge of arrangements. The members voted to support their schools in their civil defense plans and donated money to CARE to purchase school kits for Hong Kong so children there may attend school.

Hospitalized servicemen will enjoy home-made cookies and candies which will be donated by the Walnut Creek Juniors under "Operation Candy-Cookie Lift."

Tanagers to Sell Items At Gift Box

The regular monthly business meeting of the Tanager Unit of the Mt. Diablo Trerapy Center was held at the Orinda home of Mrs. A. B. Henry with the Mesdames George Eberhart, John DenDulk, and William Brobeck assisting as hostesses.

Four Miramonte High School girls from the newly formed Bobolinks, a junior unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center sponsored by the Tanagers, poured coffee and served refreshments.

Bobolinks present were Michele Angelo, Sue Lohte, Susan Henry and Pat Flint. By helping the the hostesses, they were fulfilling part of the 10 hours of volunteer service required to become active members of the Bobolinks.

Greeted as new members of the Tanager Unit were the Mesdames O. T. Buffalow, Robert Williams and Edwin Roberts. Welcomed back as a regular member after being an associate was Mrs. John Laird.

In the order of business at the meeting conducted by Mrs. James Seaman, president, members submitted money raised individually to benefit the Therapy Center. Some of the projects for earning this money were bridge luncheons, the sale of used books, homemade pie sale, toy fairs, giving home permanents, altering hemlines and sales of handmade Christmas cards.

Also in order of business was the sign-up schedule for Tanager members to work at the Gift Box at the Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek. The Gift Box will open Monday with a stock of beautiful handmade items to be sold for the benefit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Medical Wives To Hear Talk

Virginia Stanton, party editor of House Beautiful magazine, will present her ideas for holiday entertaining to the Woman's Auxiliary to the Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association. Occasion is a noon luncheon Tuesday at the Hotel Claremont.

Mrs. Stanton and her architect husband, Bob Stanton, give two or three parties a week for 8 to 20 people in their Carmel Valley home.

Mrs. John G. Morrison, president of the auxiliary, will conduct the meeting.

Table decorations will carry out both a Thanksgiving and Christmas theme. Mrs. Joseph Olsen is chairman of this committee.

James Larsen Married at Local Church

James K. Larsen of Walnut Creek and Barbara Donovan of Santa Cruz were married November 5 in the Walnut Creek First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. James Upshaw performed the ceremonies.

For her wedding, the bride wore a sapphire blue and black checked wool suit, fitted skirt with short box jacket, black accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

She was given away by her father. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Donovan live at 251 High Street, Santa Cruz.

Larsen is a graduate of Acalanes High School. He attended Whitworth College, Washington for one year, and served in the U. S. Army for three years.

He is now attending Diablo Valley Junior College, majoring in public relations.

Winter Ball Is Planned

A contingent of pretty suburban-set debutantes will join their "bud" sisters of the Bay Area to be honored at the Hill Branch-hostessed "winter ball," a highlight of the holiday calendar.

The Children's Hospital benefit to be held at the Claremont Hotel December 19, chairmaned by Mrs. Stuart Hawley of Piedmont, promises to be a posh affair and certainly one to add to the excitement of the glittery season.

Ray Hackett's orchestra will play for dancing in the Garden Room where at 10:30 the debutantes will be announced by Willard Wilde and then presented by their proud papas with whom they will dance the first waltz, until, as tradition has it, they are cut in on by their escorts of the evening.

For fast-stepping guests, a Dixieland combo will play during the evening in L'Horizon Room and a buffet supper will be served in the Gold Room to the attending black tie throng.

LOCAL BUDS AND their "blades" include Mary Dean, daughter of the Beach Deans of Orinda whose escort for the formal party will be Ardern Batchelder Jr. of Lafayette. Joanne Gompertz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John L. Gompertz of Orinda will share the first dance with her medic father and Stephen Chandler of Berkeley.

Roger Karlsrud of Walnut Creek will bow to bud Stephanie Jensen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Jensen of Orinda and the E. P. (Ted) Sawyer's daughter Carol will trip the light fantastic with a Lafayette lad. Raymond P. Tolles II.

THE ARTHUR SCHEUS' curtseying cotillion daughter Purcell will be escorted by Orindan Mark Jensen, brother of aforementioned bud Joanne, better known as "Jody' by her contemporaries.

Virginia Webster, debutante daughter of Captain and Mrs. James Webster of Lafayette will be dance-floor duoed with a Berkeleyan by name of Lawrence Bay.

Jeffrey Babcock of Orinda has been named as escort to a townside-of-the-tunnel miss, Martha Geraldine Gingg of Oakland.

The winter ball, the first of its kind, is one of the many gala parties honoring the first crop of Bay Area girls to be formally presented to society.

Rabbi Cohen Will Review

Book section of Lafayette Women's Club will have on Tuesday Rabbi H. Hersch Cohen of Lafayette. He will review the book, "The Last Angry Man,' by Gerald Green.

This book concerns the life of a physician who lives in Brooklyn.

Mrs. T. H. Elrod is chairman for this event.

Refreshments will be served under the direction of Mrs. R. F. Redden, tea chairman.

Assisting her will be Mrs. Richard Alpen and Mrs. Bart Bacon. Mrs. Bacon will decorate tables, using Austumn colors.

The meeting will start at 1:30 p.m. in Veterans' Memorial Hall in Lafayette.

Crackerjack Unit Helps Juvenile Home Children

Santa is working overtime in Lafayette. The Crackerjack Unit of Juvenile Hall Auxiliary is buying and wrapping over 200 gifts for children at Juvenile Home and many in foster homes.

This is only one of many projects this group has accomplished since August 25.

At that time members of the auxiliary became the Crackerjack unit, and elected the following officers:

The Mesdames George Maxon, president; Arthur Emerson, treasurer; Forest Baker, recording secretary; Harold Holley, corresponding secretary; Harold Caddel, membership chairman; Philip Hosford and Williams Peterson, telephone chairmen, and William Yorba, John Lavezzi and Peter Augierre, Christmas shopping chairmen.

A BARBECUE and swim at the Maxon home was the first project. Members supplied food and transportation for teenagers from the Cottage at Juvenile Hall. Mrs. Maxon has invited the Cottage children to er pool on Thursdays for the last two years.

In September, Unit members collected clothing for abandoned children, and those in foster homes. The county allows $75 a year for clothing and for growing children this often is not enough.

The Auxiliary collects and stockpiles "as good as new" clothing, saving the county and the taxpayers money.

Mrs. Maxon expressed the thanks of Crackerjacks to their friends and neighbors for "giving generous help" in the clothing project.

In October the Crackerjacks baked and decorated birthday cakes for the children at the Hall. The Auxiliary furnishes a cake and a birthday present for all children who have birthdays while living at the Cottage.

These cakes and gifts are obtained from the community through the efforts of the Auxiliary.

"Since approximately 2000 children are brought to Juvenile Hall each year, the need for cakes and gifts is unending," Mrs. Maxon pointed out.

TO MAKE birthday parties more fun, Crackerjacks presented Edgar Cottage with a revolving music box cake plate that plays "Happy Birthday to You."

On October 23, through the efforts of the Crackerjacks, the children enjoyed an hour of comedy entertainment by the Laf-Frantics.

Arrangements for the show were made with Mr. and Mrs. Den Welty of Orinda, the directors, and Theron Nelson of Lafayette Community Center.

"The Auxiliary appreciates the time and effort given by each member of the cast," Mrs. Maxon said.

She added: "Although Juvenile Hall is a temporary home, it sometimes takes weeks or months before the court can decide the best solution for each case. We feel that good live entertainment occasionally is very important. The Auxiliary hopes that eventually volunteers will be able to supply a show at least once a month."

FOUR MEMBERS of Crackerjacks supplied transportation Halloween night to take 20 children under 12 to Martinez for "trick or treat." All the children wore costumes furnished by the Auxiliary.

"Because of the Crackerjacks," Mrs. Maxon declared, "a great many children are happier and the members of this have found satisfaction and fun in the important work of showing them that their community really does care.

"Anyone interested in starting a service group in her own neighborhood on joining the volunteers who work with these children may call Martinez 3000, extension 475, and ask for the Auxiliary office."

Linden Jrs. Drama Tea

Curtain time for Linden, Jr. Branch's "Christmas in Pastel" drama tea is set at 1 p.m. December 3 at the Orinda Oakwood Drive estate of Mr. and Mrs. John Dorr. Proceeds from the benefit will go to Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

"Curtain Call,' by Russel Janney, will be reviewed and dramatized by Mrs. John Dorr, professionally known as Mary Dorr.

For the past 20 years has had her own successful radio and television shows, has lectured and done book reviews throughout the country. Her name will be included in "Who's Who Among American Women."

A tiered, white and gold-leafed ceramic Christmas tree surrounded by carolers in blue and pink, following the festive pre-holiday theme of "Christmas in Pastel," will deck the tea table.

Presiding will be Mrs. Victor H. Graber, branch chairman, and Mrs. Carl W. Smith, past chairman.

Mrs. L. G. Foster, tea chairman, will receive assistance from Mesdames Philip D. Bush, David A. Bryant, James Chapple, Volney LaBarthe, George P. Lenei, Samuel W. Smith and Lionel G. Sullivan.

Hoop League Play Starts Tuesday

Close Competitian Seen For Foothill Leaguers

By ERWIN MATTSON

The prep football season of 1958-59 is now a matter of record, and fans turn their attention to the hoop game more commonly known as basketball.

The local prep picture indicates that the race will be a close one, with clubs in general having a good nucleus of returning lettermen, plus new players up from the Junior Varsity along with the ever growing members of last year's Bees.

THE FOOTHILL LEAGUE in particular presents a picture of close competition.

Piedmont has a new head mentor in Bob Cope, who did his playing at the University of Nevada. Last year he was JV coach and this year he moves into the head job.

At the present time the varsity has 12 while Coach Bob Muenther has 18 on his Bee squad.

The varsity unit will revolve around five returning lettermen in Steve Wilcox and Jim Taggert of football fame, along with Grant Inman, Buzz Redford and Steve Rickett.

A new coach and a new system means that it will take time to work the kinks out and get the machine running smoothly.

The first taste of competition comes next Tuesday afternoon when the Highlanders play host to the ever strong Albany Cougars starting at 3:15 p.m.

OVER DANVILLE WAY varsity Coach Bob Vincent has his squad cut down too 18 and expects to trim it down to 15 or 16 before actual play gets under way.

The club is expected to be stronger than last year's as five good lettermen are on hand around which to build.

The five are George Koolery, Ed French, Mike Kyle, Erik Kellner and Gary Scott.

The San Ramon High Bee squad under Coach Larry DeRushia had a turnout of 60 and is now down to 25. The expected final squad cut will bring it down to 20.

BOTH FIVES swing into action Tuesday when they play at Benicia with the Bees opening at 3:30 p.m.

It's back to work on Wednesday when both clubs face Amador in a 7 p.m. game in the new Danville gym.

Miramonte had a squad of 45 for the varsity and Bee team but cuts were expected in midweek.

Coach Bob Callan's varsity crew and Jack Darrah's Bees won't go into action until Wednesday when they play DeAnza at Richmond at 7 p.m.

THE VARSITY has a host of returning lettermen in Bill Houston, Bob Hudson, Floyd Blaney, Randy Young, Tim Crawford, Frank Feldmar, Rob Anthonison, Doug Federighi, John Coffey and Dixon Farmer.

Coffey went to India last year and makes the return trip which gives the Miramonte club a shot in the arm in view of Coffee's 6'7" height plus the necessary ability to go with it.

Farmer is still leading the championship cross country team where he literally sets a new mark each time he runs—but it will make him a late starter in the hoop game.

Las Lomas was picked by many in early season to be the team to beat, but when only four of a possible nine lettermen returned it upset the dope bucket no end.

Injuries, studies and outside jobs cut out five.

The four who did return are Clark Ransome, Bob Gomez and Tom Nicholas, and Dave Weil.

It means that Coach Merrill Callow has a rebuilding job, at present he has 14 on his varsity squad to do it with.

SIXTEEN BEES are on tap and look to be one of the league's best bets to win—the main problem being one of height.

The Las Lomas Knights take on their first outside opposition next week when they play Alhambra High at Martinez Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. and Oakland High at Oakland next Friday.

The Acalanes Dons round out the Foothill Division and varsity Coach Dan Glines has 17 on his team at present with five lettermen among them in Bill Yonge, Paul Colin, Mike Kritscher, George McMeans and Dewaine Stults.

The Bees had 21 on the roster early in the week but were expecting to cut it down to 15 in short order in order to get ready for team play.

Acalanes opens at Vallejo December 2 in a 3:15 p.m. game and next play at El Cerrito High December 5 in another 3:15 game.

In the Contra Costa section of the Diablo Valley Athletic League Mt. Diablo and Pittsburg rate the favorite spot and figure to battle it out down to the wire.

Pleasant Hill lost a host of veterans via the graduation route and the end result is that Coach Art Poulin has but two lettermen on hand among the 20 on his varsity crew, which has been sifted out from a turnout of 35.

The lettermen are Sid Maestre and Bill Locatelli.

THE BEE TEAM, under Coach Jack Bonnickson, had a 32 man team and is now down to 22.

A part of the story of the Ram basketball season will be told Monday when it hosts the Hayward High fives with the Bees opening at 3:15 p.m.

-Sun Sports-

THE OLD "HIDDEN BALL" trick baffles Fairview players (all-white shirts) in game with Lafayette (all-white shirts) during flag-football tourney sponsored by Kiwanis Club Saturday on Stanley school grounds. Sun photographer Erwin Mattson reports lad with clenched fists wasn't really about to slug anybody. He's tense, that's all.

Montecito Players Win Kiwanis Club Football Tourney

More than 120 football-happy kids, about 100 parents, and assorted Kiwanians and coaches made the well-known welkin ring Saturday morning on Stanley School grounds as the Kiwanis Club staged its second annual football tourney.

MONTECITO COPPED the championship for both the fifth and sixth graders. Its fifth graders piled up a total score of 47 points, its sixth graders 46 points, in the rapid-round-robin tourney in which each team played all others in a series of 10-minute games.

Fifth grade runnerup was Lafayette with 33 points; sixth grade runnerup, Fairview with 41.

Total scores of other teams: Fifth grade, Vallecito 26, Fairview 21, Springhill 20; sixth grade, Springhill 19, Lafayette 18, Vallecito 6.

KIWANIANS MAX G. COONS and Dr. Ray Herman handled the job of scheduling the total of 40 flag-football games for 10 teams.

Each of the teams—one for each fifth and sixth grade at five schools—had eight players and four substitutes.

"I don't think there was a substitute who failed to get into the game," Coons said. "They were all playing to win, but playing for fun."

Each team got a 10-minute rest between game sessions.

Luncheon Held By Gael Alums

A revival of the Saint Mary's College Alumni Association's Tip-Off luncheon was held Wednesday in San Francisco.

Honoring basketball coaches Jim Weaver and Bob Hagler, the luncheon was presented under the co-sponsorship of both the San Francisco Chapter of the Association and the Gael Goal Club. Jack Henning was master of ceremonies.

Big Game Calls for Big Doings

By THE DINER

It's Big Game time again and whether you're Red or Blue doesn't make a difference. Big Game time is celebration time and many a night spot has planned well in advance to make sure there'll be no tears tomorrow night.

From Indian to Bear lover there'll be a series of brunches, cocktail parties, dinners and early Sunday morning breakfasts geared to please the football addict.

EVEN AT PAUL'S Place in Martinez, one of THE spots to visit before and after the game, parties have been scheduled by Big Game fans from Sacramento and Stockton.

Sounds like they'll have a ball, going to and from the ball game.

MEL'S WALNUT Room has something extra special set aside for the folks who can't make it to the ball game. They'll have a color telecast of the Army-Navy game going for all the fans.

So far as we know the Walnut Room has scored a first among the dining out spots with its color TV. Incidentally, their New York Cut is as good as can be found anywhere. Perhaps just a little bit better.

Fearless Prof. Picks 'Em For Last Time This Year

By SOSS OPPLE

It's been a rough season for the "peerless pickers" as far as the pigskin season is concerned, but the old Professor is going down the hard way as he makes the final picks.

It's a weekend of traditionals and anyone can win here so it takes a little extra thought to "pick 'em."

After long and due deliberation here it is—read 'em and weep!

USC ROLLS over UCLA. The Uclans are down and USC is hungry. The Trojans by 14—the score 22-8.

Oregon beats their arch rival Oregon State in an upset 21-8 while Washington State racks Washington, 14-0.

In our back yard in the big one it's Cal 28—Stanford 14. The Bears tackle hard and have a great team spirit that makes for team play.

In the Rose Bowl it's Cal versus Iowa. The odds point to Iowa—the sentiment to Cal. Here's a long-range shot: Cal 20, Iowa 20.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: And so, while the sun sinks slowly behind the eastern walls of all the stadiums and the bands play a medley of college songs and dirges, the old Professor, assisted by a bevy of beautiful pompom girls, is led down the steps from the press box, his baggy trousers jammed with copy paper, press releases, and astrology books.

Coaches Pick County Stars For Mythical Grid Team

The coaches of the Foothill Division met Monday night and came up with their All-League football selections.

The first team was dominated as expected by Las Lomas and Piedmont, who fiinshed in that order at the top of final league standings.

Las Lomas wound up with five on the first visit, Piedmont four, while Acalanes and San Ramon each had one.

The squads as released by League President Roger Schulte were as follows:

FIRST TEAM:

Economist Group Is Organizing

"The Diablo Valley Home Economist in Homemaking" is the title of the newly organized group which met recently. Mrs. Eleanor Lister presided.

Mrs. Virginia Deatons, State Recruitment chairman of the California Home Economics Association was guest speaker. She is an active member of the Eastshore HEIH and past president of the State Homemakers at Berkeley.

The group voted to affiliate with the American Home Economics Association and abide by its constitution and by-laws. This gives the group recognition as a professional group and enables it to obtain noted speakers in the homemaking fields.

The next meeting will be held Monday at 10 a.m. in the Consumer's Co-op meeting room. Hostesses will be Mrs. Loretta Wilhelmsen and Mrs. Britta Melchoir.

The guest speaker will be Naomi Gibbons from the Party Box at 1372 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. She will speak on Christmas decorations in the home.

REHEARSING SCENE for "Separate Tables," opening tonight in Lafayette Town Hall, are, from left, Jack Holder of Walnut Creek, Fran van LobenSels of Lafayette, and Patricia Winkworth of Orinda. Curtain time's 8:30. Play will also be staged tomorrow night and Fridays and Saturdays the next two weekends. —Sun photo by Erwin Mattson

Sir John Gielgud To Do Solo Show

Sir John Gielgud, recognized as one of the world's finest Shakespearean actors, will give three performances of his solo show, "Shakespeare's Ages of Man," in the Bay Area at the Curran Theater, November 30 at 2:30 and 7 p.m., and at the Berkeley Community Theater the night before.

In "Shakespeare's Ages of Man," which is based on George Ryland's Shakespeare Anthology, Gielgud presents a number of characterizations from the Bard's plays, divided categorically into three sections—Youth, Manhood and Old Age.

Baldwin Adds Seniority on 'Public Works'

Congressman John Baldwin will advance three seats in seniority on the House Public Works Committee when the 86th Congress reconvenes on January 7.

The relative rank of each committee member is determined by his length of service on the committee. Baldwin's increased seniority will be due to the loss of three members of the Public Works Committee.

Congressman Baldwin will now be sixth in seniority on the Republican side of the Public Works Committee. This committee has a total membership of 34 members.

Baldwin will also increase two seats on the Roads Subcommittee and will be the third ranking Republican on this important subcommittee.

This subcommittee originated the Federal Interstate Highway Act of 1956 and the Highway Act of 1958.

m-m-mmm (sigh) electric heat!

Electric heat gives you that take-off-your-shoes-and-be-comfortable feeling. And that's quite all right because modern electric heaters warm an entire room so evenly, you can go shoe-less without feeling c-cold spots or ch-chilly drafts.

Here are three proven electric heating systems that are better buys now. All quick, quiet and fully automatic!

LIVE BETTER—electricity is cheap in California

Mothers and BabystoHold Big Reunion

A reunion of the "Mother and Baby Care" class will be held at the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross, 1395 Civic Drive, Walnut Creek, on November 29 at 4:30 p.m.

Mrs. C. Ronald Smith, instructor, said, "This reunion is called to show off the babies and for the parents to talk over their joys and problems.

"This is because of the interest shown during the class sessions."

Another "Mother and Baby Care" class will be organized soon. Prospective mothers and fathers should sign up now at the Mt. Diablo Red Cross Chapter House in Walnut Creek.

The Red Cross East Bay Co-ordinating Council held a meeting on October 20 in the Red Cross Lounge of the U.S. Naval Hospital in Oakland.

The Mt. Diablo Chapter of the Red Cross was represented by Mrs. Sidney Gordon, supply chairman; Mrs. Leonard Seclef, gray lady; Mrs. Mollie Hearne, canteen chairman; Mrs. Faith Kligerman, entertainment chairman, and Mrs. J. C. McGeehon, council delegate.

A California state conference of Red Cross will be held in Fresno on January 8, 9 and 10 at the Motel Hacienda.

The theme of the meeting is "Your Red Cross Job in Today's Community."

General Alfred M. Gruenther, president of the American National Red Cross, will open the meeting.

Program of Humor Set For AAUW

Orinda Branch, American Association of University Women held its general meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the all purpose room of the Sleepy Hollow School. A light, gay program has been planned.

Mrs. Eleanor Silverman, associate publisher of The Sun newspapers presented selections from Max Schulman's "Rally Round The Flag, Boys" and "How to Talk to a Man" by Jean Kerr. papers will present selections from Max Schulman's "Rally Round The Flag, Boys" and "How to Talk to a Man" by Jean Kerr.

In addition, The Dramateurs a hilarious sketch from their recent summer hit, "Desk Set," as a promotion for the annual fellowship fund raising event.

Orinda Branch will sponsor the group in another production at Lafayette Town Hall early in 1959, according to Mrs. David Barton, fellowship chairman. The program is under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. R. Roberts with the Mesdames Robert Haaf and G. W. Weston assisting.

Peace Officers SchoolCeremony Is Tomorrow

Forty-five law enforcement officers and state agents who have completed the Northern California Peace Officers School, Concord, will receive certificates at the twentieth anniversary ceremony tomorrow at 1 p.m. in nearby Diablo Valley College.

Floyd N. Heffron, executive secretary of the California State Board of Pharmacy and retired lieutenant formerly in charge of the Alameda County Sheriff's crime laboratory, will be the luncheon speaker.

Karl O. Drexel, director of Diablo Valley College, will present the certificates.

Invitations have been sent to the state agencies and the more than 100 northern California law enforcement groups who have sent officers to the school during the last 10 years. School alumni have been invited to attend.

The officer students, all members of police and sheriffs departments, have been studying for the last five weeks in new school permanent headquarters located in the recently completed Concord Police Association Academy.

The school itself is sponsored by the Contra Costa Junior College District and 15 cooperating state and county agencies with administration by Diablo Valley College. Charles E. Grant, CCJCD police training cordinator, is the school director.

Area residents graduating include Officers Jan Carnahan and Archie Gore of the Walnut Creek Police Department, and Louis Price of the Sreriff's Department.

Hold Meeting

A meeting of the Mt. Diablo Red Cross board of directors and chairmen will be held at the Chapter House, 1395 Civic Drive, December 1 at 9:30 a.m.

The public is invited.
